

Middle School Mission Trip to Washington, DC!

July 22-27, 2012

*What we shared in Philly,
We can bring to DC.
We can travel locally,
To be brought far.
And share more.*

In Faith,
Hope,
And Love

Please join us...

Who would host us?

The Center for Student Missions (CSM) hosts urban youth mission experiences throughout the US. Go to www.csm.org for more information.

Where will we stay?

The CSM DC housing site is located in SE Washington, DC. CSM rents space from Brighter Day Ministries at one of their four campuses. Brighter Day is one church body located at four different Methodist churches in southeast DC. Groups may get to see and participate in the ministry occurring through Brighter Day's summer kids' camps, family life center, and other events and ministries that go on throughout the year.

What would we do there?

CSM will send us throughout the city to work with well established and meaningful ministries, including:

- So Others Might Eat (S.O.M.E.) serves breakfast and lunch seven days per week to 500-1,000 persons. S.O.M.E. also provides medical and social services to Washington's poorest of the poor.
- Martha's Table runs both a day care center for poor moms as well as a kitchen that prepares food for McKenna's Wagon, a food-for-homeless program on wheels.
- Bread for the City provides vulnerable residents of Washington, DC, with comprehensive services, including food, clothing, medical care, and legal and social services.

Who can go?

All active, WPC middle schoolers who are currently in grades 6-8, and adults willing to serve as advisors.

How much would it cost?

Youth would be expected to provide $400 towards the cost of the trip. Scholarships are available upon request, so please talk to Patrick!

Actual costs near $700/youth, which includes the CSM fee for food, lodging and projects, rental vans, advisor stipends and extra meals/activities.
