

“He, She, We and God” Faith and Human Sexuality Workshop

For Fifth Graders and Their Parents * March 5 - 6, 2010

St. Paul’s Episcopal Church * 520 Summit Street * Winston-Salem, NC 27101

$65 per child, includes books and one meal

He, She, We and God is a sexuality program designed especially for tweens (not young children anymore, and not yet teenagers – they are in be “tween”). Although most fifth graders are taught the “body parts” in school, we have a unique opportunity to place the gift of sexuality within our Christian faith. The program will be facilitated by Jenny Beaumont, a Christian Educator and teacher from Christ Church, Charlotte. Lay leaders for the event are St. Paul’s parishioners who are committed to making a connection with the tweens and helping them see that our community is interested in them during these important years of growth and change. The topics include:

- sexuality as a gift from God
- changing relationships
- media, peer and family pressure
- male and female reproductive systems and processes
- prenatal development and birth
- physical and emotional changes of puberty
- assertive behavior and hot topics

Below, you will find the schedule for the weekend. It is imperative that at least one parent participate in all parent sessions. Youth are expected to be present for all youth sessions. This program focuses on the communication between parents and tweens and supporting parents as the primary educators of their children. We hope to have participants from St. Paul’s, and from other Episcopal churches in the area. We are also encouraging our members to invite their friends and neighbors of all faith traditions. Spaces are limited, and assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. The registration deadline is Sunday, February 21.
