Blessed John Paul II

“On May 1, 2011, the man who canonized more saints than any other pope in modern history will be one step closer to sainthood himself when he becomes “Blessed John Paul II.”

Pope Benedict XVI will preside at the beatification ceremony in St. Peter's Square at the Vatican on the Second Sunday of Easter, the last day of the Octave of Easter, also known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

The date has much significance in John Paul II's life. In 2000, he presided at the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, a countrywoman from his native Poland, on the Sunday after Easter and declared that day should thereafter be known as "Divine Mercy Sunday" in honor of the saint's lifelong effort to shed light on the mystery of divine mercy. Pope John Paul II died on April 2, just a day before the 2005 celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday.

The beatification ceremonies for John Paul II will begin with an open air evening vigil on Saturday, April 30, at the Circus Maximus, the site of the ancient Roman racing grounds between the Palatine and Aventine hills.

Immediately after the ceremony, the remains of the newly Blessed John Paul II will be placed in front of the High Altar in St. Peter's Basilica for veneration. On Monday, May 2, at 10:30 a.m., Vatican Secretary of State Cardinal Tarcisio Bertone will preside at a Mass of thanksgiving in St. Peter's Square.

Following this Mass, Pope John Paul II's remains will be reinterred in the side chapel of St. Sebastian, in St. Peter's Basilica.

The beatification of Pope John Paul II comes on a rare fast track just six years following his death. The speedy process was made possible when the Congregation for the Causes of Saints waived the usual five-year waiting period that is normally required before a cause for beatification and canonization can begin. It follows a precedent John Paul II himself set when he beatified Mother of Teresa of Calcutta in 2003, just six years after her death.

During his pontificate, John Paul II canonized 482 saints. All other twentieth century popes combined canonized a total of 98 saints. With his 1983 apostolic constitution, Divinus Perfectionis Magister, Pope John Paul II simplified procedures for beatification and canonization allowing so many blesseds and saints to be named during his pontificate. John Paul II believed that the exemplary lives of the saints could inspire the faithful to answer the universal call to holiness.”

Litany of the Divine Mercy

The response is: I trust in You

Divine Mercy, gushing forth from the bosom of the Father,
 Divine Mercy, greatest attribute of GOD,
 Divine Mercy, incomprehensible mystery, Divine Mercy, fountain gushing forth from the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity, Divine Mercy, unfathomed by any intellect, human or angelic, .
 Divine Mercy, from which wells forth all life and happiness,
 Divine Mercy, better than the heavens,
 Divine Mercy, source of miracles and wonders, .
 Divine Mercy, encompassing the whole universe
 Divine Mercy, descending to earth in the Person of the Incarnate Word,
 Divine Mercy, which flowed out from the open wound of the Heart of JESUS,
 Divine Mercy, enclosed in the Heart of JESUS for us, and especially for sinners,
 Divine Mercy, unfathomed in the institution of the Sacred Host,
 Divine Mercy, in the founding of Holy Church,
 Divine Mercy, in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism,
 Divine Mercy, in our justification through JESUS CHRIST.

Divine Mercy, accompanying us through our whole life,
 Divine Mercy, embracing us especially at the hour of death,
 Divine Mercy, endowing us with immortal life,
 Divine Mercy, accompanying us every moment of our life,
 Divine Mercy, shielding us from the fire of hell,
 Divine Mercy, in the conversion of hardened sinners,
 Divine Mercy, astonishment for Angels, incomprehensible to Saints,
 Divine Mercy, unfathomed in all the mysteries of GOD,
 Divine Mercy, lifting us out of every misery,
 Divine Mercy, source of our happiness and joy,
 Divine Mercy, in calling us forth from nothingness to existence,
 Divine Mercy, embracing all the works of His hands,
 Divine Mercy, crown of all of God's handiwork,
 Divine Mercy, in which we are all immersed, .
 Divine Mercy, sweet relief for anguished hearts,
 Divine Mercy, only hope of despairing souls,
 Divine Mercy, repose of hearts, peace amidst fear,
 Divine Mercy, delight and ecstasy of holy souls,
 Divine Mercy, inspiring hope against all hope,

Eternal GOD, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.

shawl). On May 6, Academy-Award-nominated director Roland Joffe (The Mission) brings his new epic, There Be Dragons, to movie theaters nationwide. A group of parishioners has bought out movie screens to ensure the film is available in Greenville.

The movie will be shown at the Regal Cinemas Hollywood 20 on Woodruff Road in Greenville.

To purchase tickets go to the website , email movie@upstatedragons.com or call 313-5601.

Please visit our web-site with latest information about viewing the movie in Greenville, links to the movie trailer and other resources www.upstatedragons.com

By seeing and promoting There Be Dragons we can send a message to Hollywood that we want more of these inspirational films.

Roland Joffé, the director who brought us the highly acclaimed and deeply spiritual film The Mission has returned to his roots with the epic movie There Be Dragons, a powerful story of war, tragedy, love and redemption. Set during the turmoil of the Spanish Civil War (early 1900s), Dragons tells the story of two childhood friends who find themselves on opposite sides as war erupts.

One chooses the path of peace and becomes a priest while the other chooses the life of a soldier driven by jealousy and revenge. Each will struggle to find the power of forgiveness over the forces that tore their lives and friendship apart.
