CFUMC MISSIONS AT WORK!!

Dear CFUMC,

I wanted to give you an update on your donation for uniforms. We have supplied two of our schools with uniforms for all the children that needed them. These schools are in the Los Playones and Pueblo Nuevo communities. Both communities are on the northwest coast of Nicaragua. Total spent so far is $560.

These communities are remote and most of the families struggle to get by. They make their living in agriculture and fishing. I am attaching a picture of a family who received uniforms. The father is a shrimper; they have 6 boys.

Many thanks to you and the youth who helped to make this possible.

Angi and Ronnie Hopkins

During March, CFUMC sent a medical mission team to Nicaragua. Among their projects, they helped repair Los Playones school and to help get books for the children in that area. The group was also in Pueblo Nuevo to deliver health kits.

Thanks to the generosity of Church groups, VBS, and individuals!

Win Pray Give Serve Glorify

Campmeeting

Campmeeting is a rich part of our Methodist heritage. Methodism in America grew particularly because of all the campmeetings that were taking place. Once the crops were gathered in, the people loaded up their family, vegetables, cows, and belongings, and headed off to campmeeting. Under the arbor, people gathered to sing what we call the old time favorites and to hear the Word of God powerfully preached. Circuit riding preachers would stop by, preach, and spend time with the people. This upcoming week, July 20 - 26, I will be preaching ten services at Lumpkin Campmeeting in Dawsonville. This campground began in 1830 and is still going strong. Please pray for me that I will preach the word of God powerfully and that God's anointing will be on me so that we will see people's lives changed. I appreciate your prayers and support. My prayer is that God will move in a mighty way as the people gather for campmeeting.

See you Sunday at church, share Jesus, make a difference, and have a great week!

Eddie
