We All Want to be Loved

This Sunday, Feb. 14, is Valentine's Day, a day set aside to show love to others. People will give valentines, cards, flowers, candy, and gifts as a way to say "I love you." When I was a child, the teacher told us to bring a valentine box and a valentine for every child, plus one for the teacher. The reason the teacher said this is that she knew some children would get valentines, while others would not. The teacher knew that all of us wanted to be loved. Valentine's Day is that day during which we let people know they are loved. As we celebrate Valentine's Day, I want to remind you that God loves each of us more than we will ever know or imagine. God loves us every day, not just one special day. John 3: 16 reminds us of God's love. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." Romans 8: 38 tells us "...that nothing in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Karl Barth wrote a lot of books on theology. When asked what was the most important thing he wrote, he replied, "the most important thing I did not write." He learned it as a child. Barth said, "Jesus loves me this I know for the Bible tells me so..."

This Valentine's Day hear God say, "I love you." As you love God back let God's love flow through you to others. This way we will all be loved. Happy Valentine's Day!!

See you at church Sunday, share Jesus, make a difference, tell someone you love them, and have a blessed week!

Eddie
