

Worshiping the Lord of Life

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEDITATION Psalm 139:13–16

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place. When I was woven together in the depths of the earth, your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

PRELUDE This is How We Know/You Knit Me Together Joymakers

This is how we know what love is. Jesus Christ laid down His life for us.
You knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise You.
Because I am fearfully and wonderf'ly made, I praise You.

*CALL TO WORSHIP based on Psalm 78:1–7; 145:21

Pastor: Give ear, O my people, to my teaching;

People: Incline your ears to the words of my mouth!

Pastor: I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us.

People: We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

Pastor: He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children,

People: That the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments.

ALL: Let all creatures bless his holy name forever and ever.

HYMN OF ADORATION NO. 115 (vs.1, 2, 4, 5) All Creatures of Our God and King
Anne Nagle, organ

PRAYER OF ADORATION

CONFESSION OF FAITH

Pastor: Christians, what do we believe about the sanctity of human life?

People: We believe that all human beings are infinitely precious because we are made by God and are in his image and likeness. We are fearfully and wonderfully formed in our mother's wombs by our Creator. He saw our unformed substance and in His book all of our days were written when as yet there were none of them. We were set apart before we were born and called by his grace. We believe that children are a gift from the Lord and the fruit of the womb is his reward; therefore we must never do anything to hinder them from knowing and enjoying God. Whoever welcomes a little child in Jesus' name welcomes him. We believe that we are called by God to deliver those who are being taken away to death and hold back those who are staggering to slaughter and to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves.

CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

Pastor: All knowing God and Father, nothing in all creation is hidden from your sight. Everything is uncovered before your eyes, and to you we must give an account.

TOLLING OF THE BELLS FOR EACH YEAR SINCE ROE VS. WADE

SILENT REFLECTION

People: We cannot plead ignorance of the slaughter of the unborn. We also know that mothers and motherhood are being brutalized by this carnage. Your words ring in our minds and hearts when you say, “Rescue those being led away to death; hold back those staggering toward slaughter.” We have been negligent, half-hearted, and lazy in our defense of the unborn. We have given lip service to the sanctity of human life, but we have been negligent to do all that the Scriptures command us to do to stop the killing. Forgive us and break our hearts with that which breaks your heart O God. Give us that pure and faultless religion, so that we are willing to be inconvenienced and take risks on behalf of widows, orphans, and all those who are oppressed. Through Jesus, who died for the ungodly, we pray. Amen.

based on Proverbs 24:11-12; James 1:27

ASSURANCE OF PARDON Romans 5:6-8

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

PSALM OF RESPONSE Psalm 139

Lord, you have searched me and known me, You know ev'rything I do. When I rise up, when I lie down, you are with me through and through. Before a word is on my tongue, you know what I will say, your presence follows me day by day.

Where can I flee from your spirit? Where can I go to run away? If I go to heaven, or live in hell, you are there.

Search me, O God, and know me, Try me and know my heart. See if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Amen.

A reception will immediately follow the worship service.

—Psalm 127:1 (ESV)

Sunday School Schedule

WINTER SEMESTER JANUARY 3, 2010—APRIL 25, 2010 AT 9 AM

Junior High Sunday School (grades 7–8)

Philippians, Letter of Joy

BRUCE FARRELL | YOUTH ROOM (131B)

Philippians is Paul's letter of joy. In this thank you letter to the believers in Philippi, the apostle exhorts them to unity, humility, and to watchfulness for the doctrinal errors of legalism and antinomianism (one who holds that under the gospel dispensation of grace the moral law is of no use or obligation because faith alone is necessary to salvation). All the while, encouraging them that 'He who began a good work in them will carry it on to completion

Senior High Sunday School (grades 9–12)

The Doctrine of God

REV. M. JAY BENNETT | YOUTH ROOM (131A)

Nothing is more important than what you believe about God. What is God? This semester the Senior High Sunday School class will be exploring the doctrine of God as it is laid out in the chapters 2-5 of the Westminster Confession of Faith. Come and explore the richness of God as understood in the Presbyterian and Reformed tradition with us.

Open to Adults of All Ages

Psalms of Ascent

RANDY KIRKLAND | FELLOWSHIP HALL D–F

The Psalms of Ascent (Psalms 120–134) are traditionally known as the hymns sung en route to Jerusalem during pilgrimages for certain major observances. They are rich in application for us as we sojourn through life to our heavenly calling. We will dive deep into what has been called the Psalter with the Psalter and consider how to integrate these Psalms into personal, family and corporate worship.

The Unfolding Story of Heaven Part 2

ROBERT PETERSON | LECTURE HALL

Revelation 21–22 mirror Genesis 1–2 and bring the biblical story to its conclusion. We will study the remarkable pictures of final salvation of God's people and of his world that are painted in the Bible's last two chapters.

Understanding Men and Women

TOM JONES | FELLOWSHIP HALL A–C

Did you know that men and women do not always understand each other? Did you know that God created them differently for His own glory and for their mutual good? Did you know that when sin entered the human heart that it affected them differently? Did you know that when God placed His curse on sin that it had different results for men and women? Did you know that our salvation in Christ calls men and women to differing redemptive roles and responsibilities? Do you desire to grow into the man or woman that God has called you to be? Then come and join us in this important and fascinating study.

DWAYNE TER MAAT | ROOM 213

The book of Acts tells us the exciting history of the beginnings of the church in Jerusalem and its rapid spread. There are dramatic scenes and strong personalities at the center of the action. We will look at the message that Acts has for us today.
