Dear Ones,

I caught myself on Sunday saying that I didn’t know where the year had gone. I know where it went; my comment should have been about how quickly it passed. It seems like only yesterday!

The calendar is a funny thing. It moves inexorably on, with total disregard for anything happening in our lives. Because we have annual observances that float around, like Thanksgiving and Lent/Holy Week, our sense of time can get a little skewed. It is fixed dates that provide an anchor, a point of re-orientation.

One of those dates is Christmas. It happens every year on the 25th of December. While the day of the week moves around, it’s always the 25th. It is always eight days before the first day of the new year. If I’ve managed to hook you into the church’s calendar, you may know that day as New Year’s Day, but you also know it as “The Holy Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ.”

What an odd name it is! But if we think about it for a moment, we might just remember that it was the custom and tradition that children of Jewish families were “named” on the eighth day after their birth. (The boys got a little extra treatment that day, too, but we won’t go there.)

That “naming” was important to the Jewish people shouldn’t be a surprise. After all, it is that name by which God knows us. Remember how God re-named Abram and Sarai? They became Abraham and Sarah, new creations in the world.

The name given at baptism is the name by which God will know us. Remember the son of Elizabeth and Zechariah? Family and friends thought he should be “Zechariah bar Zechariah”, or “Zechariah the son of Zechariah”.

Old Zechariah set them straight, writing “His name is John.” So John, later “the Baptist”, was known to God as John. Same for each one of us.

Naming gives us our identity. It is part of our Sacrament of Holy Baptism. The celebrant asks the name of each candidate and then baptizes him or her by that name and in the name of the Holy Trinity.

Madeline L’Engle, in her Time Quartet, features a form of evil called Echthroi. She uses this Greek word that, in one sense, means “enemies” to label a force that “un-names” people, such that they cease to exist. They have their effect on matter, knowledge, and understanding. By un-naming, they obliterate individualities, and everything looks like everything else. In L’Engle’s books, the defense against the Echthroi is the simple act of Naming, that is, calling out the name of the person or thing that the Echthroi are attacking.

One of the great gifts of God in Our Lord Jesus Christ is the reassurance that we are all known by God each of us by name. God knows us and loves us and it was for us that God sent Jesus, that he might be a living witness to God’s love for all of creation and model for our life together.

Our names are a part of our identity and, in part, a mark of the continuing of God’s creation, an irrefutable sign that God is still at work in the world.

As we embark on Epiphany and the seasons that follow, think on how you are one that “names”, how you are part of God’s creative force in the world. After all, God knows you by name! It was given at your baptism, when God named you and adopted you.

-Thomas
I mark the passing of our brother, Earl, with much sadness. Earl slipped quietly away on Friday, November 27 and the age of 85. He and Audrey shared 64 years together and they fought a long battle with his emphysema and Kennedy’s disease.

One of the things I remember most about Earl was his conviction. Whatever it was, if it was important to him, he gave 110% as a minimum. He was a man of many talents, and he did almost everything well. I met Earl on my first Sunday at Saint John's: a hearty handshake and sincere welcome. I knew in an instant that I had a friend for life. His parting words that Sunday were, “Don’t take any wooden nickels.”

Over the years I came to know a lot about Earl, though he almost never talked about himself. It wasn't that long ago that I learned of his semi-pro baseball career. Doesn’t surprise me, though; like so many things, he was just good at it.

A week or so before his death, I visited Earl. He looked me squarely in the eyes and said, “I'm ready.” He surprised me. I said something like, “Well, I’m not.” I think that was the case for many of us that knew Earl, knew his passion for living and loving, knew his indomitability. As I spent more time with him, I came to understand that it wasn’t “I'm ready for this to be over”, but “I'm ready to see what God has waiting for me.” How very Earl. Earl lived full-time in his baptism, in his adoption as God’s own. It became his way of life and he knew that his death to this world was the beginning of a new life with God.

Earl touched many lives from the “University of Galvez”, to baseball, to the army, to the telephone company, and everywhere along the way and in between. Along with many at Saint John's and in Mobile, I miss Earl very much, but I know that he is one of the saints in light and is with each of us every day.

For healing grace and continued strength, we pray for our members: Alice Schablinski, Bessie Southall, Andrew Lee, Bud McLean, Bill Southall, Leah Betts, Stephen Lee, Shannon Newberry, Asley Garris, Gloria Lee

For our Homebound: Alice Cieutat, Mae Dunn, Will Elam, Corinne Faust, Gwen Johnson, Violet Kosko, Vevia Lund, Angela McGuire, Audrey Meador, Jane Tate Moore, Betty Plash, Dot & Chick Wohlert

For victims of war and their families, and members of our Armed Forces and their families: Steven Garris, Jeffery Yeager, Ellis Eugene Garner, Eric Mattoon, Cheryl Garner

The Holy Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ
This day we celebrate the naming of Our Lord on the eighth day after his birth, in accordance with Jewish custom. Naming is important to all of us; it establishes our identity. We will celebrate this feast on Friday, 1 January 2010 at 12:10PM.

The Epiphany of Our Lord Jesus Christ
10:00AM on Wednesday, 6 January
“Epiphany” comes from a Greek word meaning to manifest or appear. This feast concludes the twelve days of Christmas and marks the discovery of God Incarnate by the gentiles in the persons of the wise men. Join us to celebrate the visit of the Magi to the stable in Bethlehem.

Baptism of Our Lord
10:00AM on Sunday, 10 January
The First Sunday after the Epiphany of Our Lord Jesus Christ is also known as The Baptism of Our Lord. On this day, we recount Jesus’ baptism in the Jordan by his cousin John the Baptizer. It is a particularly appropriate day for baptisms.

Hilary of Poitiers
We celebrate the life of Hilary, Bishop of Poitiers, on Wednesday, 13 January at 10:00AM. Sadly, Hilary isn’t the first woman bishop; in the mid-300s, it was only men. Hilary was a defender of the ecumenical councils at Nicaea and its Trinitarian formula. In 355, he refused to sign a condemnation of Athanasius, under pain of exile, and continued to defend the church against the Arian heresy.

The Conversion of Saint Paul
12:10PM on Monday, 25 January
We mark Paul’s acceptance of Jesus as his Lord and Savior on this day. Even though it is referred to as his conversion, the Pauline position seems to be more of enlightenment to a new reality, rather than rejection of his heritage in favor of Christ. This feast concludes the Week for Christian Unity.

John Chrysostom
10:00AM on Wednesday, 27 January 2010
John was Patriarch of Constantinople and is one of the great saints of the Eastern Church. His surname was earned: Chrysostom means “Golden Mouthed”; he was a gifted orator and teacher. He also had an acute sensitivity to the needs of people. He wrote a manual called “Six Books On The Priesthood” that still stands as a measure.
Vestry Summary

The regular meeting of the Vestry of Saint John’s was held on 8 December at 7:00PM.

In the committee reports, Eugene Johnston (Evangelism) reminded the Vestry of the food drive and work day for Bay Area Food Bank. Cindy Gass (Finance) reviewed the November financial reports. Howard Yeager (Outreach) reminded the Vestry of the Giving Tree benefiting McKemie Place. Pat Pritchard (Parish Life) reviewed the plans for the Holiday Party. In addition, Saint John’s will be serving dinner at McKemie Place on December 30. Pat Fulford (Stewardship) asked Vestry members to complete their follow-up calls.

The Rector reviewed the pledge campaign status.

The Vestry voted to continue to send 10% of our plate and pledge income to the diocese.

The Vestry reviewed the plans for the parish meeting on Sunday.

A preview of the 2010 budget was discussed.

The meeting adjourned at 7:50PM.

Pledge Update

As of the end of the year, we have received commitments from 67 pledge units. Our total for 2010 stands at $129,766, down about $8,800 from last year’s total.

We have 8 new pledges this year, but there are 10 pledge units that have not turned in a pledge card that pledged last year.

If you plan to pledge to the 2010 operating budget, please turn in a pledge card as soon as possible. Extra cards are available in the church office.

Election

On Sunday, 13 December, the parish met to elect new Vestry and Convention Delegates and celebrate the season at our Holiday Party. The following were elected to serve the parish:

To serve on the Vestry for three years:
- Mr. Ron Brown
- Ms. Janet Buckley
- Mr. James Christiansen

To serve on the Vestry for one year:
- Mr. Ron Waites

To serve as Delegates to the Diocesan Convention:
- Mr. James Christiansen
- Ms. Cheryl Winters-Heard

To serve as Alternates to the Diocesan Convention:
- Mr. Eugene Johnston
- Ms. Connie McLean

Congratulations to all.

Vestry Retreat

On Saturday, January 16, the Vestry of Saint John’s will spend the day in retreat at the church. During its time together, the Vestry will elect its new officers, consider the 2010 budget, and participate in some workshops on leadership and future vision.

The retreat will start at 9:00AM and conclude at or before 5:00PM. Lunch and breaks will be provided. If you will be unable to attend, please contact the Rector.
OUTREACH NEWS FOR JANUARY 2010

The Outreach Committee has had a very good year in 2009 in our ability to support a variety of worthy organizations. We were able to support the Home of Grace, and had fun hosting these courageous women at a luncheon. We’ve supported our own Episcopal Relief and Development in their global aid programs. We’ve given to Wilmer Hall, and contributed over $1,000 to their pledge drive. We have given to St. George’s Church in Baghdad; we have given over $1,000 to the outstanding efforts of 15 Place in their work with our neediest neighbors. We sponsored a Giving Tree for McKemie Place, and the collection of daily essential items for this shelter more than covered two tables and a good section of floor at their facility.

We look forward to doing the same and more in 2010. We have an energized committee, with a new chairperson in Ron Waites. We have ideas and a budget that we, with your help, will use to identify and support organizations that extend Christ’s hands to those in need. Please consider joining your efforts with ours, and lend us your time and your talents!

-Cheryl Winters-Heard

MEAL FOR MCKEMIE PLACE

On Wednesday, December 30, St. John’s members provided the evening meal for the clients of McKemie Place, Mobile’s shelter for single, unaccompanied homeless women. Ham, potato casserole, baked beans, green salad, cookies and Kool-aid were served to the ladies. The following folks helped out by cooking and/or serving: Marie Brown, Janet Buckley, Joan Marie Elam, Pat Fulford, Thelma Lomers, Connie McLean, Pat Pritchard, and Butch Yeager.

Thanks to all who helped. We ask your continued prayers for the ladies of McKemie Place.

SAINT JOHN’S FOOD BANK WORK DAY

Eleven members of Saint John’s spent a Saturday morning in December not Christmas shopping, wrapping presents or attending a holiday gathering but instead sorting cans and food boxes and bottles; checking expiration dates; and washing food packaging.

The food bank staff calls it “reclamation work”; those in attendance called it community service and good fellowship. As we learned: every can, box or bottle that is donated to the food bank from individuals, organizations, or grocery stores has to go through this reclamation process before it can be distributed to the community organizations that give the food out to those in need.

The morning’s result? The group cleaned and checked 75 boxes of food (picture a large produce box), three pallets of 25 boxes each, which was over 3000 pounds of food (Food Bank staff weighed it)!!

The Evangelism Committee will be organizing another one of these work days during Lent: look for the sign up sheet on the bulletin board: we would like to do even more next time so we will need more volunteers!
