

Capital Campaign Corner

Building Unity with God

From Robin Morris

For the months of March and April, we will be adding a new section to the newsletter. We are calling it the Capital Campaign Corner. In this section, we plan to share information about the Capital Campaign Team and the plans that we are making for the campaign. We will also post this information on our church's web site with a link to allow you to send questions or comments to the Steering Team.

First, I'd like to introduce you to the Campaign Steering Committee members. Bill Hood and I are serving as the Co-Chairs. Working with Dan as our pastoral advisor, we have put together a strong and energetic team. Emma Doughty and Jessie Little are leading a sub-team focused on Special Events. Bob Mobley and Scott Watson have already been busy developing important documentation for the congregation about why now is Our Time to build for the future of Unity and Fort Mill. Steve Chase and Vaughan Batchelor are focusing on Financial Planning and Giving. Leading our Spiritual Awareness component are Emelia Howell and Joe Bonds. We certainly want to include the youth of our congregation, so Lisa Swinford and Debbie McNair will lead Youth Activities.

Second, I'd like to invite you to plan to attend our first Special Event, a Field Trip to Sharon Presbyterian Church on March 30, after the 11:00 am service. Please make plans to join us around 12:15 pm for a box lunch, then we will travel together by bus and by car to visit our sister church in Charlotte to see their sanctuary designed by WKWW, the architectural firm that we have selected. Please make your reservation via the church web site or by completing the reservation form in the bulletin.

Finally, the most important message that I have for you this week is a request that each member begin to pray faithfully for this campaign and for the future of our church. We ask you to pray specifically that God will provide guidance to the Campaign Steering Team and to the members of our congregation as we enter this important time in the life of our church.
