

New Topics for May

THE QUESTION OF GOD 	How each of us understands the meaning of life comes down to how we answer one ultimate question: Does God really exist? Begins 5/3 @10:15 a.m.	Explore the lives of C.S. Lewis and Sigmund Freud - two men who have shaped much of Western thought. + Discover how Scripture speaks to the questions their lives evoke.
 Lewis Freud	How does one decide what is moral? What does it mean to love your neighbor? How are we to understand suffering and death?

Room TBA Contact Leo Bruce (bruc7485@bellsouth.net) for more information, or see www.wieuca.org

Speaking of Faith

5/3 Speaking our Beliefs

Using: "The Need for Creeds"

5/10: How the Bible Came to Be

Using: "Deciphering the DaVinci Code"

5/17: Repossessing Virtue: faith and economic crisis

Using: "Repossessing Virtue"

5/24: Revenge and Forgiveness

Using: "Revenge and Forgiveness"

5/31: Finding God in the Wild

Using: "Presence in the Wild"

Program titles are underlined and can be found at www.speakingoffaith.org

These function as discussion starters only, so it is easy to step in even if you didn't get to listen to the program.

Hosted by The Living Room Class - Room E215 - 10:15 a.m.

Formations Curriculum Classes*

This Month: The Book of Esther

5/3 The King Chooses Esther: When is it acceptable to keep my faith to myself?

5/10 Mordecai Angers Haman: How am I responsible for others' reactions?

5/17: Mordecai Intercedes: How can I help others through my position in life?

5/24: Esther Takes a Risk: What risk is God calling me to take?

5/31: The Jews Prevail: What victories do I need to celebrate?

*Please see an usher or refer to the brochure "Find Your Place On Sunday Mornings" to locate one of potentially several classes that are covering these topics.