

New Topics for November

The Journey Class

is discussing the current sermon series based on NT Wright's acclaimed book, Simply Christian.

Sunday Mornings in November
10:15 a.m. in room W105

Sharing Thanks at our common table

- Great Turkish food
- Great company

Discuss with Muslims (and fellow Christians) the meaning of Thanksgiving and how Giving Thanks is vital to our faiths.

November 23rd, 3:30 p.m.
Heritage Room

- 3:30-4:30 Brief Panel Discussion followed by table discussion and Turkish hors d'oeuvres
- 5:00 We and our guests will attend the community thanksgiving service to be held at Wieuca.

Sponsored by Wieuca, CBF of GA, and the Istanbul Center of Norcross.

Contact: Matt Rich mrich@wieuca.org

Formations Curriculum Classes*

This Month: Being in the World

Nov. 2 Standing Apart: Where are my spiritual boundaries? What lines am I unwilling to cross?

Nov. 9 Avoiding Offense: Is my behavior an argument for or against the truth of the gospel?

Nov. 16 Rocking the Boat: What would it cost me to live and speak the truth?

Nov. 23 Walking a Narrow Line: How do I balance faith and worldly responsibilities?

*Please see an usher or refer to the brochure "Find Your Place On Sunday Mornings" to locate one of potentially several classes that are covering these topics.