

Growth Group Questions
Week of November 12, 2006

1. What is your number one take away from the series so far?
2. Growing up, would you say that your family talked openly, lovingly, and positively about sex? Why or why not?

*Does your family talk about sex this way now? Why or why not?
3. Who do you think has taught you the most about sex:
*friends?
*family?
*church?
*culture?
4. Read 1 Corinthians 7:1-7 (NLT). Answer the following:

*Verse one reads, “Now about the questions you asked in your letter.” You can see here that the church at Corinth was asking about sex. How does it make you feel to talk about sex in church/small groups? Why do you feel the way you do?

*What do you think Paul means in verse 3 when he refers to sexual intimacy?

*In verses 3 and 4, what does it mean to give authority of our bodies over to our husband or wife?

*Verses 5 reads, “So do not deprive each other of sexual relations.” What does that REALLY mean?
5. Have you ever used sex/physical intimacy as a weapon, tool or game? If so, which one and why?
6. Of the following list of words, choose three that best describe your view of sex: joy, pleasure, regret, loneliness, indifference, frustration, conflict, success, failure, satisfaction, spiritual

*Now choose three words that you wish described your view of sex.

*What is the next step for you to take to achieve this goal?
