

William serves as the Minister to Students at First Baptist Church of Tucker since October, 2009. He was born in Douglasville, GA and lived there for 3 years while his dad, Tommy, served as Minister of Education at FBC Douglasville. The Deal's moved to Danville, VA as Tommy and Susan were called to serve alongside each other at Mt. Hermon Baptist Church for 11 years. Before his freshman year of high school, the Deals felt called to Orlando, FL as his mother accepted the Minister of Music position at College Park Baptist Church. Tommy served for a few years at the Christian Service Center for Central Florida as the Associate Director and later was called to be the Associate Coordinator for the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Florida. William and his brother Ragan attended Edgewater High School.

William felt God's call on his life between his sophomore and junior year at Edgewater and was encouraged and affirmed by his parents, family, church, and ministers. He continued to pursue God's call as he continued his education at Samford University in Birmingham, AL. Throughout his time at Samford, William served several ministerial positions: Youth Intern at Green Valley Baptist Church, Hoover, AL, Youth Intern at Mt. Hermon Baptist Church, Danville, VA, Bible Study Leader at Passport Camps, Wingate, NC, Pastoral Intern at Shades Crest Baptist Church, Birmingham, AL, and Youth Intern at First Baptist Church of Wilmington, NC. William was also a three-year member of the Samford University A Cappella Choir. He graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Religion from Samford in May 2009.

William currently attends McAfee School of Theology at Mercer University's Atlanta Campus where he plans to receive a Master of Divinity degree in May 2012.

William serves alongside Pastor Randy Shepley as co-chaplains for the Tucker High School football team. William is an avid Atlanta Braves fan and is a DIE-HARD fan of The University of Alabama, ROLL TIDE!!! He has an Australian Cattle Dog puppy (mom is red heeler, dad is blue heeler), named Boomer. He enjoys cooking, sports, playing NCAA Football on XBOX, making people laugh, spending quality time with friends and family, and referencing song lyrics and movie quotes for life application.
