Prelude: Song Without Words in D Major

Felix Mendelssohn

Hymn 362

The Word of God

Nicaea

The Opening Acclamation

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 355

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Gloria in excelsis

Hymnal S 280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the Lord, *
that great is the glory of the Lord.
- 7 Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- 9 The Lord will make good his purpose for me; *
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

The Second Reading: I Corinthians 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Hymn 686

Nettleton

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Holy Communion

All who seek a closer relationship with Christ are invited to His Table. To receive the Bread, stand or kneel and the priest will place the Bread in the palm of your hand. To receive the Wine, guide the Chalice to your lips, or carefully dip the Bread into the Cup. If you do not wish to receive the Cup, simply cross your arms as the Chalice is presented. If it is not your custom to receive Communion, we invite you to come to the altar for a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest and bow your head for a blessing. For gluten-free communion wafers please make your need known to the clergy at the altar.

Parish Announcements

Thank you for remembering to turn off your cell phone.

Get your tickets today for the Canterbury Gala & Silent Auction being held in the Wren Building on Saturday, February 23, from 6-9pm ($75/ticket). To donate items for the gala, please contact Alex Maneval at armaneval@email.wm.edu. Proceeds from the gala go to the Canterbury Missions Fund, which provides grants to various charities and scholarships to W&M students for international trips. To attend, Alex Narducci at anarducci@brutonparish.org for tickets or visit bit.ly/CANTERBURYGALA-2019.

Canterbury Sunday Night Fellowship Dinners: For the last several years, a dedicated handful of parishioners have supported Canterbury's Sunday Night Fellowship Dinners by preparing and serving meals after our Sunday evening services. We are now in need of new volunteers to help continue this wonderful ministry to the William & Mary community. If you are interested in supporting this effort by helping prepare one meal a semester, please visit bit.ly/canterburydinners. Thank you for your support!

Finding Our Niche: Exploring Our Spiritual Gifts: The Women's Lenten Retreat will be held at Chanco on March 8-10. The Rev'ds Lauren McDonald and Jan Brown will facilitate this retreat on discovering our spiritual gifts and putting them to use in God's service. Please visit our website for further details. Registration is open and forms can be found in The Chronicle, on our website, or in the reception area of the Parish House. Contact the Rev'd Lauren McDonald for more information at lmcdonald@brutonparish.org.

Christian Basics is an adult class for those seeking to join the Church or to renew their commitment to Christ and his Church. They will be held from 2-3pm on Sundays in the Parish House beginning March 3 through April 14. The class is required for those wanting to receive baptism, confirmation, reaffirmation or reception into the Episcopal Church, but all are welcome to join the conversation and learning. Read more about the class in the February Chronicle or on our website, and please sign up by contacting Christine Britton at cbritton@brutonparish.org or (757) 229-2891.

The Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper will be held in the Parish House at 6:30pm on Tuesday, March 5, hosted by our youth group, with profits from the dinner supporting our summer youth mission trips. The cost is $10/person or $20/family (pay at the door; children under five eat free). Please email rsvp@brutonparish.org or call the church office and let us know how many adults/children will be attending. To volunteer to help set up, serve, or clean up, Please contact Meghan Brewer at mbrewer@brutonparish.org.

The DOK Lenten Devotional will be available on our website Sunday, March 3. Printed copies will be available Sundays, March 3, 10 & 17; at the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper; during the Ash Wednesday services; at the Women's Silent Lenten Luncheon; and at the parish house reception area for just $1/copy donation.

Visit your Bruton Parish Gift Shop before Valentine's Day for a wonderful selection of presents for all of those you love! We have lovely new jewelry and fashion accessories, heavenly soaps, and smashing new ties for the gentlemen. Our volunteers will help you find the perfect gift, and wrap it as well. All proceeds benefit mission and outreach!

The Heritage Center & Gift Shop: Both the Shop and Center are open Monday thru Saturday from 10am-5pm and on Sunday from 12pm-5pm and are always free to enter. An introductory video is available which describes how our two Historic Parish Registers and A Guide to the Memorials of Bruton Parish Church can be accessed online from any computer.
