Welcome & Announcements

The Word of God

The Opening Acclamation

BCP, p. 323

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Gloria in excelsis (said in unison)

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot exist without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Genesis 37:1-4, 12-28

Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him. Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." He answered, "Here I am." So he said to him, "Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron. He came to Shechem, and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, "What are you seeking?" "I am seeking my brothers," he said;

"tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock." The man said, "They have gone away, for I heard them say, ' Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams." But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life." Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him" -- that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it. Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers agreed. When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 105, 1-6, 16-22, 45b

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.
 - 2 Sing to him, sing praises to him, *
and speak of all his marvelous works.
 - 3 Glory in his holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
 - 4 Search for the LORD and his strength; *
continually seek his face.
 - 5 Remember the marvels he has done, *
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
 - 6 O offspring of Abraham his servant, *
O children of Jacob his chosen.
 - 16 Then he called for a famine in the land *
and destroyed the supply of bread.
 - 17 He sent a man before them, *
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
 - 18 They bruised his feet in fetters; *
his neck they put in an iron collar.
 - 19 Until his prediction came to pass, *
the word of the LORD tested him.
 - 20 The king sent and released him; *
the ruler of the peoples set him free.
 - 21 He set him as a master over his household,*
as a ruler over all his possessions,
 - 22 To instruct his princes according to his will*
and to teach his elders wisdom.
- 45b Hallelujah!

The Second Reading: Romans 10:5-15

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved." But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Hymn 608

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

The Holy Communion

All who seek a closer relationship with Christ are invited to His Table. To receive the Bread, stand or kneel and the priest will place the Bread in the palm of your hand. To receive the Wine, guide the Chalice to your lips, or carefully dip the Bread into the Cup. If you do not wish to receive the Cup, simply cross your arms as the Chalice is presented. If it is not your custom to receive Communion, we invite you to come to the altar for a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest and bow your head for the blessing. For gluten-free communion wafers please make your need known to the clergy at the altar.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Post-Communion Prayer

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Parish Announcements

Thank you for remembering to turn off your cell phone.

Matthew Whaley Classroom Volunteers, we need you! Whether you participated as a classroom helper or tutor during this past school year, or you are just wanting to know what is needed and expected, please come to the forum today which will be held in the church at 10:30am and/or the August 20 informal conversations between "seasoned" volunteers and prospective volunteers at 10:30am in the churchyard on the palace side. The school can use as many classroom helpers/tutors as we can provide!

A Family Summer Pool Party & Cook Out at Kings Point Pool will be held Sunday, August 20, from 4-6pm. Families with children and youth should bring a dish to share and your best diving board skills! Please rsvp by contacting Meghan Brewer at 252-347-7078 (cell), 757-345-6489 (office) or email mbrewer@brutonparish.org.

Bruton Singles will gather at 5pm on Wednesday, August 23, for supper at the Cheese Shop, followed by the Summer Breeze outdoor concert at Merchants Square at 7pm, featuring the United States Air Force Rhythm in Blue Jazz Ensemble. Bring a lawn chair (cost of meal only). Call Heidi Elam at 757-897-5012 to rsvp.

The Annual Parish Book Sale has become a great Williamsburg tradition, and proceeds this year will be used for Parish Youth programs. The sale will be held Friday & Saturday, September 1 & 2 from 9am-5pm and also on Sunday, September 3 from 10am-3pm. Don't forget to bring in your books to donate! We are running behind previous years in donations and the sale is fast approaching! Please also donate CDs, DVDs and puzzles, and bring your donations to the Parish House (box them, if possible, for easy storage) or contact 757-229-2891 for pick-up if you can't bring them here.

Those needing books picked up are requested to have the books boxed and on the ground floor or preferably garage for pickup ... this makes it easier and safer for church personnel to pick them up! Please, no encyclopedias, VCR tapes or cassette tapes. We'll also need volunteers, to help pick up book donations, set up and staff the sale, and clean up afterwards. Please contact Stephen Fitton (757-897-4696), Judy Collard (757-565-2549) or email to booksale@brutonparish.org.

SpiritWorks will kick off National Recovery Month: Tickets are now available for SpiritWorks' Celebration of Recovery! Please consider purchasing a ticket and joining us as we celebrate those in recovery from addiction. The festivities will be held at The Diamond, 3001 N Boulevard, RVA, Home of the Richmond Flying Squirrels. Our fellowship begins with an all-you-can-eat buffet, followed by a game in which the Squirrels will take on the Bowie Baysox. The night will be capped off with fireworks. Tickets are $25/person and, if you are interested in attending, please contact Lynn Smyth at SpiritWorks@brutonparish.org, and we will deliver those tickets to you! If you will not be able to attend but would be willing to purchase ticket(s) that will allow an individual in recovery to attend, we would be grateful to you as well. Please consider supporting us in our effort to show the community that RECOVERY is POSSIBLE.

The ECW Fall Coffee will be held at 9:30am on Thursday, September 21, in the Parish Hall. The Rev'd's Lauren McDonald and Jan Brown will discuss the Church's response to addiction in Voices of Recovery: Stories of Hope. Bring a friend and join us for coffee, conversation and fellowship. Please email FallCoffee@brutonparish.org to RSVP or if you have any questions.

Traveling with Friends to Ireland: If you're interested in a 12-day tour of Ireland, join the Friends of Bruton who are sponsoring a tour from May 1-12, 2018, to Dublin, Belfast, Derry, Galway and Killarney with stops at many historic and scenic locales along the way. Visit our website or go to <http://bit.ly/FOBIRELAND2018> directly for the brochure to learn more about the trip and how to register.

Mobile Giving to Bruton Parish Church: Very simple ways you can give in seconds! Visit <http://bit.ly/GIVE2BPC> or text GIVE to 804-742-4209. Give one-time with or without an account. Schedule automated giving!

The Living the Gospel Bible Study will be held today at 11am in the Custis House and will look at the impact the Gospel message has on our everyday lives.

Children & Youth

Nursery is available for babies to 4-year-olds from 8:30am-12pm in the Parish House.

Children's Church is age-appropriate worship for children through 5th grade and is held at 9:15am in St. Mary's Chapel. Sunday School & Choirs are on summer break.
