Hymn 448 Deus tuorum militum

The Word of God

The Opening Acclamation The Book of Common Prayer, p. 355

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Gloria in excelsis Hymnal S 279

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Father in heaven, who at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit: Grant that all who are baptized into his Name may keep the covenant they have made, and boldly confess him as Lord and Savior; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Reading: Isaiah 43:1-7

Thus says the Lord, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for you, and to the south, "Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away for your life. Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you; I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth -- everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 29

- 1 Ascribe to the LORD, you gods,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- 2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his Name;
worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
- 3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters;
the God of glory thunders;
the LORD is upon the mighty waters.
- 4 The voice of the LORD is a powerful voice;
the voice of the LORD is a voice of splendor.
- 5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedar trees;
the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon;
- 6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.
- 7 The voice of the LORD splits the flames of fire;
the voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- 8 The voice of the LORD makes the oak trees writhe
and strips the forests bare.
- 9 And in the temple of the LORD
all are crying, "Glory!"
- 10 The LORD sits enthroned above the flood;
the LORD sits enthroned as King for evermore.
- 11 The LORD shall give strength to his people;
the LORD shall give his people the blessing of peace. Antiphon

The Second Reading: Acts 8:14-17

When the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus). Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Hymn at 9:15 am 121

Caithness

Hymn at 11:15 am 116

This Endris Nyght

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 3:15-17, 21-22

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Installation of Vestry Members (9:15am)

Priest: Brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, we are all baptized by the one Spirit into one Body, and given gifts for a variety of ministries for the common good. Our purpose is to commission these persons in the name of God and of this congregation to their ministries as Members of the Vestry.

You have been called to serve on the Vestry of this congregation. Will you, as long as you are engaged in this work, perform it with diligence?

Vestry Members: I will.

All: The Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding; he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk in integrity.

Priest: Let us pray.

O Eternal God, the foundation of all wisdom and the source of all courage: Enlighten with your grace the Vestry of this congregation, and so rule their minds, and guide their counsels, that in all things they may seek your glory and promote the missions of your Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the name of God and of this congregation, I commission you as Members of the Vestry in this Parish, and pledge to you our prayers and support.

The Holy Communion

All who seek a closer relationship with Christ are invited to His Table. To receive the Bread, stand or kneel and the priest will place the Bread in the palm of your hand. To receive the Wine, guide the Chalice to your lips, or carefully dip the Bread into the Cup. If you do not wish to receive the Cup, simply cross your arms as the Chalice is presented. If it is not your custom to receive Communion, we invite you to come to the altar for a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest and bow your head for a blessing. For gluten-free communion wafers please make your need known to the clergy at the altar.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (9:15am)

Celebrant: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's Body and Blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we share in one bread, one cup.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epiphany Blessing

May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Changing Face of Bruton
Church Renovates in Preparation for the New Organ

From week to week the chancel is changing as Bruton undergoes the most significant renovation since the 1930s. The result, a new world-class organ and a work of art, will far outweigh any disruption.

Parish Announcements

Thank you for remembering to turn off your cell phone.

Women Under Fortyish will gather at 1pm today in the Parish House. We'll be using the African Bible Study Method to discuss scripture. Childcare is available.

Celebrating Martin Luther King: Bruton choirs will again join First Baptist, Scotland St., to celebrate the life and legacy of Martin Luther King. The celebratory service will take place on Tuesday, January 15, at 6pm at First Baptist Church, Scotland St. All are welcome.

Bruton's COFM Winter Shelter begins tonight through January 20. Monetary gifts are still being accepted for the operating expenses associated with hosting our 25-30 guests for the week. Please visit bit.ly/GIVINGTOBPC online or make your check payable to Bruton Parish Church with "COFM" in the memo and either place it in the offering plate, drop it by or mail it to the Parish House. Please pray for our guests and the volunteers participating in this week's winter shelter.

Chili Fundraiser Supporting Youth Mission Trips: Our youth attending the mission trips this summer to Navajoland, NM and the Appalachian Folk Life Center in Pipestem, WV are selling meat or vegetarian chili to raise money for their trips. The cost is just $10/quart. Call the church office to place an order or contact Meghan Brewer at (252) 347-7078 or mbrewer@brutonparish.org. What a great addition to your Super Bowl Party while also supporting our youth programs! Orders will be available for pick-up at the Parish House on Saturday, February 2, from 10am-12pm or on Sunday, February 3, following the morning services. Place your order by January 30!

The 2019 Canterbury Gala & Silent Auction will be held in the Wren Building on Saturday, February 23, from 6-9pm ($75/ticket). To donate items for the gala, please contact Alex Maneval at armaneval@email.wm.edu. Proceeds from the gala go to the Canterbury Missions Fund, which provides grants to various charities and scholarships to W&M students for international trips. To attend, visit bit.ly/CANTERBURYGALA-2019 to purchase tickets.

The Good Book Club continues Thursday, January 17, from 7-8:15pm in the Coffee, Tea & Thee of the Parish House. Episcopalians around the world will be reading Paul's letter to the Romans. Come to the Bible study weekly, participate through Facebook, or read along at home. Visit our website for more information and get the readings!

Canterbury Sunday Night Fellowship Dinners: For the last several years, a dedicated handful of parishioners have supported Canterbury's Sunday Night Fellowship Dinners by preparing and serving meals after our Sunday evening services. We are now in need of new volunteers to help continue this wonderful ministry to the William & Mary community. If you are interested in supporting this effort by helping prepare one meal a semester, visit bit.ly/canterburydinners. Thank you for your support!

The Habitat Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for the house that Bruton just helped finish will be held at 11:30am on Tuesday, January 15, at 8576 Pocahontas Drive. All are welcome!

Bruton Singles: Meet us at 2pm at the Parish House reception area on Sunday, January 20, at 2pm when we'll walk over to the 2019 Winter Blues Jazz Festival Wind Down tent on the Duke of Gloucester Street to enjoy over two hours of great jazz music. Wine and beer will be available for purchase. Contact Heidi Elam at (757) 897-5012 to RSVP.

"Warm Up" Williamsburg will be dishing out delicious soups, stews and chowders at their soup tasting dinner on Friday, January 25, from 5:15-8pm at the Williamsburg Community Chapel to benefit the COFM Emergency Winter Homeless Shelter. Local band Elderberry Jam is back by popular demand and their Bake Shop is going to be more delicious than ever. Tickets will go on sale in December. For further information, visit them on Facebook or go to COFM.info. If you have questions or wish to volunteer or provide items for their bake shop, contact Warmupwilliamsburg@gmail.com or (757) 903-7031.

The Women's Theological Book Group will meet Thursday, January 31, from 1-2:30pm in Room 206 of the Parish House. Our January book is the memoir, Here If You Need Me, by Kate Braestrup, about her experience becoming the first chaplain to the Maine Warden Service. All women are invited to join us, even if you haven't attended before.

The Sunday Usher Ministry is in need of ushers to form two new usher teams for the 7:30am services. You would be serving only one Sunday about eight times a year. Please volunteer, we really need your help. Contact Ginny & Bill Dugge at ushers@brutonparish.org.

Children & Youth

Nursery is available for babies to 4-year-olds in the Parish House from 8:30am until after the 11:15am service.

Children's & Youth Choir rehearsals resume today in the Parish House following the 9:15 service. Children's Church resumes January 20, and Sunday School on Sunday, February 3.
