

We must do as Jesus did and prioritize that which yields spiritual fruit.

I. Scriptural C_____ (vs.1,2,3,13,16,25,29,32).

II. This P_____ Year

A. This past year will be remembered as the year of f_____ testing.

1. God never asked us to like tests, but He expects us to be faithful in tests.
2. What you've had to do to pass financial tests is what our church has had to do.

B. Financial tests establish m_____ priorities.

1. Financial tests should cause a person and church to define priorities.
2. Financial tests should cause a person and church to reduce and prioritize expenditures.

C. Financial tests establish r_____ priorities.

1. Tests of any type always challenge relationships.
2. You have stood strong. Thank you.

D. After testing comes b_____.

1. We are already seeing more fruit.
2. Most importantly the Lord is with us.

III. The Year A_____

A. In 2012 we must become more focused on what the Lord is doing to bring s_____ f_____.

B. We will prioritize B_____ s_____.

1. We will prioritize small group Bible study and Wednesday Bible study.
2. Commitment 1: Will you commit to study God's Word in a small group Bible study?
___Yes ___No

C. We will prioritize w_____.

1. Worship is a celebration of joy in the heart that comes out of our mouths through speaking and singing. All of us contribute to worship.
2. Commitment 2: Will you commit to worshipping God from your heart each time you attend worship at Liberty? ___Yes ___No

D. We will prioritize r_____ people.

1. Reaching people is a church program and first and foremost a Christian passion.

2. Commitment 3: Will you commit to regularly inviting or picking up a person for church?
___Yes ___No

E. We will prioritize 1_____ all people.

1. This is a strength at Liberty. The words of our mouth must match the love in our hearts.
2. Commitment 4: Will you commit to loving all people and using words that build up rather than words that tear down? ___Yes ___No

In conclusion, we are the body of Christ. We need each other. Are you committed to our ministry priorities?