

“I Could Never Do That; I’d Get Too Attached”

FREE Foster Parent Info Session

One of our foster parents shared: “Who am I to say “no” to foster parenting because of how it might hurt me when a child leaves? Who am I to protect my own feelings when a vulnerable child is given no choice in the matter? A child who is alone with possibly no one else to step up and protect him/her?”

There is rarely a line of folks waiting to take in a foster child. If you don’t do it, there may be no one else. That’s reality. We average 50 calls a month looking for foster homes for these kids. Join us to learn more about how you can help.

If not you, who?

If not now, when?

Consider saying “yes!”
Take the first step and join us to explore the possibility!
