

SPANISH ARTICULATION DEVELOPMENT

Not all consonants are produced in the final position of words in the Spanish language.

The Spanish language only has five final consonant sounds in words.

They are: /d/, /m/, /n/, /r/, and /s/.

According to Merino(1992), these sounds were correctly produced by 90 percent of the children at the designated ages in the sample.

