

Friday, October 30 • 7:00 pm

*Annual Halloween
Monster Concert*

Terrifying Toccatas and Haunting Harmonies played by the area's foremost performers on the Great Pipe Organ. This is a great family event popular with all ages and audience costumes are encouraged!

Sunday, November 22 • 4:00 pm

Organ Plus

Mark Jones and Friends

Pink Church Organist Mark Jones will be joined with colleagues Organist/Pianist Chuck Stanley, Trumpeter Adam Bookspan and Saxophonist Andrea Gilbert in a wide range of entertaining music for organ/piano and instruments.

Sunday, December 20 • 4:00 pm

A Christmas Concert and Carol Sing

The Chancel Choir and Soloists with Orchestra

The Chancel Handbell Choir

Come and celebrate the joys of the season with what has become a Spire Series favorite. Featuring the beautiful Magnificat by Pergolesi as well as traditional holiday music featuring the Pink Church Choirs and soloists, accompanied by orchestra and the Great Pipe Organ with audience participation encouraged!

Sunday, January 10 • 4:00 pm

Sonic Spectacular

Marc Reese, Assistant Dean of the Lynn University Conservatory and trumpeter with the world famous Empire Brass will present the entire brass department from the conservatory (20+ players) in a sonic spectacular of music for organ and brass.

Sunday, January 31 • 4:00 pm

Nathan Laube

Concert Organist

A rising star among classical musicians, Nathan Laube graduated from the famed Curtis Institute of Music this spring where he was accepted on a full scholarship at the age of 15. He has already performed in many of the great venues around the world including Carnegie Hall, Spreckels Organ Pavilion, Balboa Park, Ocean Grove Auditorium, Philadelphia's Kimmel Center with Maestro Charles Dutoit and the Philadelphia Orchestra. The winner of numerous competitions, Mr. Laube was the sole American organist in the 2004 International European Organ Festival. He also performed regularly and was broadcast from the famous Wannamaker Organ in Philadelphia. This concert is co-sponsored by the Ft. Lauderdale Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Sunday, February 14 • 4:00 pm

My Romance

Kristen DiNonno and

Brian Ricci

Mark Jones, accompanist

Celebrate Valentine's Day with South Florida favorites Brian Ricci and Kristen DiNonno in a program of beautiful duets, all about love and romance.

Sunday, February 21 • 4:00 pm

Concordia College Choir

One of the world's premier college choirs, the Concordia Choir makes their second appearance on the Series directed by Dr. Rene Clausen. Known for their annual PBS Christmas broadcasts, this choir has performed in nearly every major venue in the country including the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall.

Palm Sunday, March 28 • 4:00 pm

The Pink Church Choir and Soloists

As has become our tradition, our own "Pink Church" Chancel Choir will present their eleventh annual concert of great choral literature. One of the finest church choirs in the Southeast, this group of dedicated singers (now featured on our church website!) will present a program of sacred music that will both inspire and prepare you for the drama and celebration of Holy Week and Easter.

Sunday, April 18 • 4:00 pm

Family Fun - Cartoons and Comedy

Dave Wickerham, Concert Organist

The original Felix the Cat cartoons and vintage Laurel and Hardy "shorts" accompanied on the Great Pipe Organ by acclaimed virtuoso theater organist Dave Wickerham, currently Artist in Residence and Curator at the Milhous Museum in Boca Raton. Mr. Wickerham demonstrates his incredible artistry accompanying these vintage cartoons and comedies in the style of the old theaters.

Sunday, May 9 • 4:00 pm

Robertson/Cole Trio

Jon Robertson, piano;

Carol Cole, violin; David Cole, cello

The world-class Dean and String Artist Faculty of Lynn University Conservatory will present a delightful afternoon of chamber music with the artistry of our own Dr. Robertson and his distinguished colleagues have demonstrated here many times before. Featuring Mendelssohn's Trio in d minor, works by Haydn and Joaquin Turino will also be performed.

Sunday, May 23 • 4:00 pm

The Nova Singers

Peggy Joyce Barber, Director

Charles Stanley, Associate Director,

Anthony Ciotti, Accompanist

Former Pink Church Director of Music and renowned choral director Peggy Barber and the Nova Singers (which she founded in 1976) will make a long-awaited return engagement at the Pink Church. One of South Florida's oldest and most well-known choirs, the Nova Singers have performed throughout the United States and Europe in varied venues from the Florida Marlins ball field to Carnegie Hall!!

