
College Students, do you want to have fun this summer, answer some of your questions about God, and give of yourself to help others?

2012 Intergenerational Mission Trip

- Who? Rising 6th graders through college-aged young adults
- What? We will work on homes of people experiencing poverty, through Camp Livingstone, a 10-year old summer mission program of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant. (<http://pcclife.com>) Plus, on our Free Day we will have the option to whitewater raft, outdoor rock climb, or take a horse-riding tour!
- When? June 16-22
- Where? Hurricane, West Virginia
- Why? God said so. And it will be fun. God + fun = sign up now!
- How? The trip costs $275. Plus, we would really appreciate any fundraising help. Submit your $100 deposit right away!

Montreat Youth Conferences

are a unique event – a gathering of 1000+ Presby-kids from all over the south for a week of learning from each other, exciting worship, and crazy recreation. A typical day includes: morning energizers, keynote message, and small group meetings; afternoon games, water activities, art and sports; and evening worship, concerts, movies, recreation, and quiet time with your back home

High School Conference, July 8-14

For entering 9th through graduated 12th grade students!
$350 for everything!

The College Work Crew helps with everything from Audio/Visual management, mission projects, drama skits, dance parties, and help lead the Providence group through Bible studies and worship reflection.

Why go to Montreat?
Meg Sink says...

“I thought the Washington mission trip was the highlight of my summer. But Montreat was the highlight of my life.”
