Narrative Questions

Clergy, Vestry and Staff are encouraged to participate in answering these questions .

1. What were the primary opportunities, innovations and challenges in conducting worship during the pandemic? What did you learn?

The pandemic is changing our ways of worship as we balance our deep needs for both gathering as the Body of Christ and loving one another as the Body of Christ. Some of these changes will stay with us, even as we emerge from the pandemic's grip, safe distancing and masking.

St. Boniface Church is fortunate that our digital broadcast ministry is strong. The pandemic provided an opportunity for enhancing the technology and broadening our reach.

We added additional cameras and upgraded our audio system and added more trained volunteers, giving our online congregation a heightened sense of being in the church with fellow parishioners Sunday to Sunday. Through consistent publicity, we have enjoyed growth in our online congregation. New worshippers are joining us, seasonal members can worship with us year-round, and formerly inactive parishioners are coming back - online. It's been heartening to see worshippers tuning in from all across the country, Canada, Scandinavia, Spain and New Zealand.

St. Boniface is also fortunate to have such a talented and dedicated music ministry, led by Dr. James Guyer. Through his creative adaptations, the choir continued to provide uplifting music each Sunday.

2. What are the primary opportunities and challenges your church is facing as it plans for the future?

This pandemic has brought deep sadness and loss to many in our community. It has also provided the very unexpected opportunity for us all to pause, to take stock, to develop and strengthen centering and holy habits. As we all emerge from our quarantines - at whatever level we have established them, we plan to provide ways for our parish and community members to identify these practices and develop tools to still incorporate them into their day-to-day lives.

COVID-fatigued describes most of us after so many months. Inclusivity and safety will be our watchwords as the pandemic eases. We want to extend hospitality in welcoming parishioners back to in-person worship, fellowship and formation. And we want to honor those who will need more time to feel and be safe in publicly gathering. Worship, ministries and programs will need to become hybrid in nature, reaching out to both these groups of parishioners and newcomers.

3. What three things have changed the most in how the church conducts its ministry?

1. Our worship format, sanctuary/choir loft layout
2. How we conduct hospitality and newcomer welcome
3. Constriction of volunteer participation and staffing has affected all areas of ministry.
