FROM THE PASTOR

Our new church year formally begins on September 1, which is now just around the corner. I am moved to set a theme for us to focus on together through the year. It is "strengthening our roots." What keeps us grounded and in touch with the resources of God that supply our strength and growth? Our roots include our commitment to who Jesus is, what God's Word says, and where the Holy Spirit leads.

We are rooted in our past history and our present and future mission as given by the Lord. We are rooted in the soil and peoples of the community where God has planted us. Our roots provide the reason for everything we plan and do as a church.

Let's set goals for the new church year that strengthen our roots. Jesus commissioned us to make disciples. By this time next year let's all know how to define what a disciple of Jesus is. Let's complete a review of our church governance documents and make sure that we are organized for making disciples in Lampasas in 2019. Let's celebrate our faith, hope, and love with renewed commitments to worship, fellowship, and service. Whatever harvest we long to see in days ahead must begin with strengthening our roots.

One of the major steps in preparing for a new church year is adopting our spending plan for the work of the church. With this newsletter you are receiving a copy of the proposed budgets for FBC and the FBC Preschool & Kindergarten. Get acquainted with the proposals, and on Sunday evening August 12 these will be formally presented for discussion in the monthly church conference. Then the vote will follow Sunday August 19 at the conclusion of morning worship.

Yours in Christ,
Bro. Rick

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

As I write this, I'm at the Alleluia Conference at Baylor University. It's always a time of renewal and refreshing. Thank you, Church family, for allowing me to be here.

So many good things happening in the life of FBC. Classroom remodeling to accommodate growth in our Weekday Preschool Ministry, a new church directory in the works, First Family Reunion on the horizon... summer has been busy.

This month marks my 7th anniversary on the staff of FBC. I am grateful for the honor of serving on your staff. Thank you for all you've done for me and my family. You are such a blessing!

5th Sunday singing is July 29 at 5:00 p.m. You bring the ice cream, cookies provided!!!

Looking Forward,
Bro. Robert
