A friend sent me an e-mail reminder of a really clever "pumpkin parable" about being a Christian.

"Being a Christian is like being a pumpkin. God lifts you up, takes you in, and washes all the dirt off of you. He opens you up, touches you deep inside and scoops out all the yucky stuff—including the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc. Then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside you to shine for all the world to see."

Here is a Web site that has taken that parable and turned it into a fun learning activity for Bible study with children: <http://www.creativebiblestudy.com/christianobjectlesson-pumpkin.html>

Who can you give a good word about Jesus this week? Be creative!

Let it shine,
Bro. Rick

BULGARIA MISSION REPORT

Our team who made the mission trip to serve with Judy and Paul Ridgway in Bulgaria will bring images and testimonies as the heart of the church conference Sunday evening November 12th. Plan now to be in Heritage Hall at 5:00 p.m. that Sunday.

Wayland & Wanda Lesley and Family in the death of their daughter-in-law, Sherry Lesley.

Dorothy & George Hayner and Family in the death of her brother Bill Fortune. Jewell Allen and Family in the death of her husband, Ray Allen Sr.

In the spirit of Thanksgiving, I want to take a moment and give thanks to our veterans. November 11th marks that day when we as Americans show our appreciation to those who have served to preserve our freedoms. With my dad having been a 30 year military man, I understand the sacrifice that has been paid so that I have the right, among many others, to worship my God freely.

Every time we gather to worship, we have that freedom because men and women served to defend our Constitution.

On Sunday, November 5th we will honor our veterans and their spouses with a lunch and recognition in our morning worship service.

Thank you for my freedom,

Robert
