"Given for you ..."

Join us this Sunday for the ordinance of the Lord's Supper. We celebrate this beautiful remembrance of our Savior's sacrifice at both the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. services.

Last week several of the staff, deacons and myself attended a two-day conference on Spiritual Leadership at Englewood Baptist Church and presented by Blackaby Ministries International. Over the course of the two days, we heard presentations on topics such as the calling of a leader, the vision and influence of a leader, as well as challenges, temptations and ruts in leadership.

The conference presenters were some of the most experienced, intelligent minds in ministry today. The information they presented was both challenging and convicting. However, as much as we learned, it can all be brought down to one simple, yet profound concept. As leaders our most important task is to stay close to the Father. Through time spent with Him, we will hear His heart, catch His vision, feel His passion. Through this intentional relationship with Jesus, we will find the strength to face the challenges and temptations that are inevitable for any believer, but are intensified for those in leadership. And, most importantly, how can we, as leaders, bring others into a relationship with God when we are not practicing it ourselves.

If you were unable to attend this conference, you missed a good one. I encourage you to take advantage of the many opportunities in our area to attend these types of events. Consider these: the East Coast Men's Bible Conference is coming to Englewood in March; the Frazzled Female Conference is coming to the Memorial Baptist in Williamston in a couple of weeks. Even if you are not the "conference type", just think about it. I truly believe you will be refreshed and renewed by spending time with other believers in a different setting.

Finally, please pray for those of us in leadership. The devil has us in his crosshairs, for sure. It is our deepest desire to hear the heart of God for First Baptist Church and for our community. Ask God how you can continue to join with us in His work for the Glory of His Kingdom.

In His grip,
Corby

Sweetheart Banquet
Thursday, February 11
6:00 p.m. in Friendship Hall.

Check out the church library. Winter is a great time to read!

During a talk to children, a pastor was trying to explain the uniqueness of John the Baptist. He asked the children if they knew what kind of foods the rugged John ate? Apparently, the children had not yet learned that John had eaten locusts and wild honey, so the pastor said, "He ate wild honey and bugs. What do you think of that?" "Well," answered a perceptive little girl, "at least he had fiber."

Associational WMU Luncheon
February 13, 10:00 a.m.
at Immanuel in Greenville

Pat Snyder, Executive Director of Mary Frances Center will be the guest speaker. Art supplies for the center will be collected and an offering for a Habitat building in which the associational WMU will participate through Grifton Ministries will be collected. We will provide transportation for any who would like to attend. Be at the church by 8:45 a.m. We plan to leave the church at 9:00 a.m. Join us! We're hoping for a large group from our church for this event! The more the merrier!

The next meeting of the FBC Senior Adults will be on February 16th at 2:30 in Friendship Hall. Our speaker this month will be a representative from Carolina Donor Services who will speak on the importance of the organ donor program. Refreshments will be served. Plan now to attend.

Operation Prayer Shield

Heavenly Father, We can have no greater joy than knowing that our children walk in the truth. Please instill in our children a love for worship, prayer, and Your Word at an early age. Establish patterns of devotion in them now that will carry through the rest of their lives. Teach them to walk in the Spirit, depend on Your strength, love You with all their hearts, hear Your voice, obey Your commands and follow hard after You. In Jesus name we pray, Amen. Sign up sheets will again be available in the Sunday School roll books and on the table outside of Friendship Hall on Wednesday evening. Thank you so much to those of you who continue to support our church with your prayers.
