GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

OPENING VOLUNTARY

ELEGY IN B FLAT MAJOR
MICHAEL MORGAN, ORGAN

GEORGE THALBEN-BALL

(As the opening voluntary begins, please use this time to center yourselves for worship.)

WELCOME

*The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
And also with you.*

✠ OPENING SENTENCE

✠ HYMN

LET US COME NOW TO THE KINGDOM

HYFRYDOL
TEXT: RAE E. WHITNEY

Let us come now to the kingdom where we're greeted by our Lord,
Where our feet are washed in glory and our energies restored,
Where the saints have come to join us from the west and from the east,
Where from north and south they've gathered to help celebrate the feast.

Let us come now to the kingdom where all hungry souls are fed,
Where our drink is peace and gladness and God's righteousness our bread,
Where each stranger is our neighbor and each neighbor next of kin,
Where Christ waits for all God's children, so the banquet can begin.

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

REQUIEM

JOHN RUTTER

CHANCEL CHOIR; KIM LONG, SOPRANO; AND CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

I. REQUIEM AETERNAM

*Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis.
Te decet hymnus, Deus in Sion; et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem.
Exaudi orationem meam, ad te omnis caro veniet.
Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison.*

Grant them rest eternal, Lord our God, we pray to thee; and light perpetual shine on them forever.
Thou, Lord, art worshipped in Sion; thy praises shall ever be sung in all Jerusalem.
O hear us; O Lord, hear thy faithful servants' prayer; to thee shall all mortal flesh return.
Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy.

From Missa pro defunctis

II. OUT OF THE DEEP

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.
O let thine ears consider well the voice of my complaint.
If thou, Lord wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss; O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee; therefore shalt thou be feared.
I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for God; in God's word is my trust.
My soul fleeth unto the Lord; before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.
O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy, and with God is plenteous redemption.
And God shall redeem Israel from all its sin.

III. PIE JESU

Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis requiem.

Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis sempiternam requiem.

Blessed Jesus, Lord I pray in thy mercy grant them rest.
Lord our God, we pray thee, grant them everlasting rest.

From "Dies Irae," Missa pro defunctis

IV. SANCTUS

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.

Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua.

Hosanna in excelsis.

Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and majesty.
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord our God.
Hosanna in the highest.

Missa pro defunctis

V. AGNUS DEI

**Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem.*

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, in thy mercy, grant them rest.

We who are born of woman have but a short time to live and are full of misery.

We come up, and are cut down like a flower; we flee as it were a shadow.

In the midst of life we are in death; of whom may we seek for succor?

*Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem. *(See above)*

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord; you who believeth in me, though you were dead, yet shall you live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

Latin text from Missa pro defunctis

English texts from the Burial Service, 1662 Book of Common Prayer

VI. THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture;

and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul; and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me;

thou has anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But the loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

VII. LUX AETERNA

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors," even so saith the Spirit.

Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine; cum sanctis tuis in aeternum quia pius es.

Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Light eternal shine upon them, Lord, we pray; with saints and angels ever dwelling, for thy mercy's sake, may they rest in peace.

Grant them rest eternal, Lord our God, we pray to thee; and light perpetual shine on them forever.

English text from the Burial Service (slightly altered)

Latin text, Missa pro defunctis

May Prayers of Peace Be Lifted to God

Soaring overhead in our sanctuary is a brilliantly hued representation of the prayers of the people. Each flash of color is an origami crane folded by someone in our church. And inside each bird is written the subject of a prayer. These include the name of each member of our congregation, prayed for as the crane was created.

Yet the focus of this artwork is larger than any individual or congregation. The work—completed over the course of two years—was installed to mark September 21, the International Day of Peace. On this date, people around the globe are encouraged to participate in acts of peace. That theme directed worship planning for September 21.

Why origami cranes? Early in 1955, a twelve-year-old girl named Sadako Sasaki (佐々木 禎子) developed leukemia as a result of exposure to radiation from the nuclear bomb dropped on her hometown, Hiroshima, at the end of World War II. Visiting her in the hospital, Sadako's best friend reminded her of the Japanese legend that, if she could fold one thousand cranes, her wish to be made well might be granted. Stories differ as to whether Sadako was able to finish one thousand cranes before her death in October 1955, or whether her friends completed the task in her memory.

Regardless, a statue of Sadako holding a golden crane now stands in the Hiroshima Peace Memorial and, every day, cranes arrive from people all over the world who hope and pray and work for peace.

Like Sadako's cranes, the exact number of Central's cranes is unknown. We estimate it to be more than 2500. Many thanks to all who prayed these three-dimensional prayers and helped create our "A Wing and a Prayer" art installation that can now inspire us all to serve the Prince of Peace.
