

"In the world of food, as in the world of contentment, true comfort usually comes wrapped in a simple package, a package that belies the effort and time gone into its preparation. We chase that elusive and simple package called contentment as if we were in a never-ending scavenger hunt. We pursue it by plying ourselves with instant comforts, and hope that those instant comforts will ease the hunger deep inside. Contentment, like hash browns, looks like a simple thing. What is not seen at the dinner plate is the grating, shaping, and seasoning that has occurred behind the scenes, in the kitchen. Contentment is hard work. There is a measure of uncomfortable toil to be worked through before it can be learned. We can't see the whole of it. God is waiting for just the right moment to answer. This is contentment: patience, while an all-knowing, all-seeing God works out every last detail on our life's plate."

WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

'Dig In at the Diner'

Every woman needs a place where she can talk about whatever's on her mind - from fears to friendships, lost rings to love, diapers to grace. In the neighborly, nothing-fancy "Girlville Diner," girlfriends chat in corner booths and receive the peace and guidance that God serves. Is your spirit hungry for "just a little something"? Or is your soul famished? Dig into a weekend at the Girlville Diner (Winterlude) and find yourself feasting on exactly the soul food you need.

We welcome Kim Bolton to Winterlude this year. Kim is a seasoned speaker who conveys her faith with humor, frankness, and insight. Combine outrageous humor and gifted speaking and you'll know why she has become a much sought after speaker! Kim is also an extraordinary singer/musician and worship leader, one of the finest in Christian music today. She and her husband, Tony, partner in the parenting of their four children and live in Tennessee.

SPECIAL MUSIC

Once again we are delighted to welcome Sweet Rain to Winterlude. Lead singer Jamie Longo, along with Wendy Hunt and JoAnne Lotorto will draw us into His presence with joy and celebration as we sing praises to Him. Bring your heart (whatever condition it is in) and your smile (it's there somewhere) and of course, bring your dancing shoes (even if you don't know how to dance!!).

Are you a returning Winterluder? Why not invite someone to join you for the weekend!! Share the excitement, the blessings, and the memories!

- ❖ Great teaching
- ❖ Rich worship
- ❖ Delicious food
- ❖ Practical workshops

Winterlude - a "not to be missed" weekend!

"...for His compassions never fail.
They are new every morning;
great is Your faithfulness."

Lamentations 3: 22, 23
