"If I can stop one heart from breaking,

I shall not live in vain;

If I can ease one life the aching;

Or cool one pain,

Or help one fainting robin

Unto his nest again,

I shall not live in vain."

For the Sake of Others

James is the kind of book you should read out loud. It contains a clear call for action, a plea for vital faith - a faith that is demonstrated not in mere words, but in lifestyle.

After completing our study of James, we turn our attention to one who actually lived the kind of lifestyle James encouraged - integrity, devotion to God, and an authentic day-to-day commitment to live a life that pleases God and intrigues others.

Daniel is a man best known for "sharing" a den with lions - but the lessons from his life offer relevant guidelines for our lives today. God blessed Daniel with wisdom, skills, and favor - as long as Daniel maintained his character and courage.

How do we live our lives with the character and courage of Daniel - in a world that teaches us to think and live only for self?

Join us this year at Joy Bible Study. Learn from James' teaching and Daniel's life.

Grow and deepen your own character and courage. And learn what a JOY it is to live - for the sake of others!

*"And let us consider how we may pur one another on toward love and good deeds.
Let us not give up meeting together,... let us encourage one another."
Hebrews 10:24, 25 (NIV)*
