Classroom Updates:

What's New:

This week we are starting on Our Five Senses! We have books to read, activities to do and taste tests to take. Lots of fun for the kids.

Thanks:

Thanks to ALL my parents for going to Young Chef's with us! I love that trip, hands on and so much fun for them.

I would like to ask for baby dolls for our classroom. New is not expected. Used clean dolls would be great. Thanks for the wipes and tissues you provided for our class.

Reminders:

We have started collecting pennies or change for our Pennies for Patients Project.

Don't forget to wear your PJs to school on Friday!! For "P" week we will watch a movie while enjoying Pepsi and Popcorn!
