What Do You Do? Spiritual Reflections on Life and Livelihood

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men”
Colossians 3:23

Presented by our own Rev. Dennis Kelly, you are invited to this mini-retreat to examine the relationship between our work and our spiritual life.

God created us with unique abilities and passions to fulfill His purposes through our work. The spirituality of work is relevant to all ages and types of work. This includes preparing for a vocation, receiving a regular paycheck, caring for home and others, engaging in the arts, or volunteering one's time and talents. All are invited to reflect and meditate on such questions as:

- Is there a broader definition of work that is more than the things we do for a living?
- Is there spirituality of work that can help guide us throughout our lives?
- Is there a way to make our work more meaningful or to find meaning in our work?

If you are a student gaining skills for meaningful work or employed in a profession, if you are unemployed or underemployed, if you work in an office or at home, if you are retired or devote yourself to volunteerism, you will be able to connect and gain personal insight for your life.

Come together to grow in faith and to learn in community through:

- private prayer, meditation, worship
- presentations,
- discussions, reflections, fellowship
