Prayer of Gratitude

People: Almighty God and Lord of all, it is Your will that we live in peace, and yet, we live in a broken world, where conflict seems inevitable. Even so, as we gather here in safety, we give You thanks for all those who have served to secure the freedoms we hold dear.

*Minister: All rise, who have served in the military in the past,
All rise, who have family currently serving in the military. All rise, who have lost loved ones in War.*

People: Heavenly Father, we praise You for those who have served with honor, pride, courage, and sacrifice. With deep gratitude we thank You for those who have put the welfare of others ahead of personal safety. Do not let hearts be hardened by awful experiences or the harshness of life. We ask that You comfort those that still feel pain and loss because of a willingness to be in harm's way.

Minister: All rise, who feel the patriot's heartbeat and carry a deep appreciation for the sacrifices of others to protect the weak and preserve liberty for us all.

All: Lord, we lift up those who have answered the call to duty. May we never forget all who have offered themselves for the cause of Your promised peace. Now, we pledge to be diligent in our service and faithful in our duty, for Your kingdom's glory. Amen

Congregational Response 799 vs. 4 America, the Beautiful

*O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years;
Thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.*

A Word and a Prayer November 12-18, 2017

Patriotism is a lively sense of collective responsibility. Richard Aldington

Dear Lord Jesus, help me to see my responsibility within the community and its collective values.

And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you – ask what you can do for your country. My fellow citizens of the world: ask not what America can do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man. John F. Kennedy

Dear Lord Jesus, save our world and help us to work together for good.

War will never yield but to the principles of universal justice and love, and those have no sure roots but in the religion of Jesus Christ. William Ellery Channing

Dear Lord Jesus, Prince of Peace, raise up in us eternal values worth living and dying for.

Men will carry guns until they learn to carry the cross. Employment Counselor

Dear Lord Jesus, deepen my devotion to You above all other demands.

The last great hope for survival of mankind rests not in implements of war but in a strong and abiding faith in God. H. S. Jackson

Dear Lord Jesus, just as You trusted in God's faithfulness even on the cross, may I trust You amidst my darkness.

How different the new world order would be if we could consult the veteran instead of the politician. Henry Miller

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for the veteran who knows the hurt and devastation of war.

Peace has to be created in order to be maintained. It is the product of Faith, Strength, Energy, Will, Sympathy, Justice, Imagination, and the triumph of principle. It will never be achieved by passivity and quietism. Passivity and quietism are the invitations to war. Dorothy Thompson

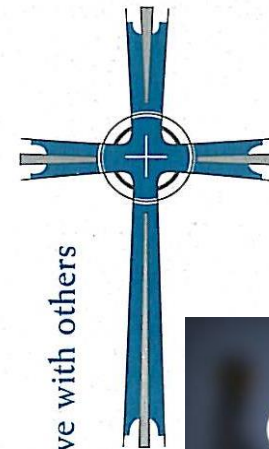

Dear Lord Jesus, help me to work as hard for peace as I work on security.
