Ten Tough Problems in Christian Thought and Belief - "David Madison earned his PhD in Biblical Studies from Boston University School of Theology in 1975, For nine years, he had served as pastor for two congregations in Massachusetts, until his deep interest in the Bible got overshadowed by skepticism. As he reflected on the many problems that hobble Christianity, David's concept for the book gelled. There are, in fact, far more than ten problems, but the deconstruction of Christianity can be accomplished more efficiently by gathering them into ten categories, and we all like top-ten lists. So come and hear what this engaging, witty minister-turned-atheist has to say. The evening promises to be educational, entertaining ... and fun."

Hear! Our Voices - Gallery35 at Community – Opening Reception - Saturday, December 2, 6-8 pm, Gallery

We are pleased to let you know that our next exhibit Hear! Our Voices was installed on October 28. Thank you so much for contributing your thoughts on social justice issues of special importance to you. Our artists have been creating work inspired by many of the themes about which you wrote. In addition to the artwork, we are including printouts of your words as an important part of our exhibit. Let our voices be heard!
