

A Special Opportunity for Children and Youth

Classical Vocal Arts for Children

Cheryl Warfield, Artistic Director of Manhattan Opera Repertory Ensemble, known as MOREOpera, is offering a year-long series of classical vocal arts for children and youth, forming a children's chorus. It is a music appreciation and chorus training program open to all children aged 6-14 (some age flexibility) so invite family, friends and neighbors too. There is no tuition fee. Children can join the class throughout the year.

New Series Begins
Sunday October 8
1-2:30 pm, Gallery
JHH Community House
at The Community Church of New York
Unitarian Universalist
28 East 35th Street (Look for the Red Door)

Children will learn to sing classics and opera, be introduced to the rudiments of vocal technique, ear training and language arts, and perform in concerts and outreach programs to promote vocal arts and cultural enrichment. To start, the children will learn vocal and breathing exercises, posture and ear training while learning to sing as a group.

The upcoming sessions will be follow a 2nd and 4th Sunday schedule. Throughout the year, the children will offer choral concerts that will be open to the general public.
