

Anniversary Tributes and World Premieres* Works of Social Consciousness, 2019

*"A Loveletter from Rosa Luxemburg" (Mar. 5, 1871-Jan. 15, 1919)

*"Why Do They Shut Me Out of Heaven?" (Dickinson, Mandelbaum & Lehrman)

*Children's Cantata: "Workers' Kids of the World, Unite!" by Marc Blitzstein

The Roundheads & the Pointedheads by Bertolt Brecht & Hanns Eisler

(translated & adapted by Lehrman & Castleman)

Finale from I Have a Dream by Martin Luther King (Jan. 15, 1929-Apr. 4, 1968), by Elie Siegmeister (Jan. 15, 1909-Mar.10, 1991) & Edward Mabley

*"There Had to Be a Revolution" by Charlie Stern &

Leonard Bernstein (Aug. 25, 1919-Oct. 14, 1990)

+Excerpts from The Cradle Will Rock, 3Penny Opera & West Side Story

with soloists Helene Williams, Thomas Smith, John Callison
Bill Castleman, Sarah Blaze, Perri Sussman, Michael Niemann
Charles Samuel Brown, Jackie Bakewell, Brendan Rorke
Flutist Barbara Novick and members of The Metropolitan Philharmonic Chorus

Conducted by Leonard Lehrman

Tuesday, January. 15, 2-4:30 pm – Assembly Hall

A Special Social Tea: Preview of January 20 Concert/Opera (Performance Starts at 2:30)

RSVP Requested to Esther Rosado- erosado@ccny.org /212-683-4988, ext. 123

Sunday, January. 20, 2:30pm – Hall of Worship

Full Concert/Opera
Free, No Tickets Needed

Leonard Bernstein

Marc Blitzstein

Bertolt Brecht

Hanns Eisler

Martin Luther King

Rosa Luxemburg

Elie Siegmeister

Concerts co-sponsored by grants from Puffin Foundation, Maldeb Foundation, and Prof. Edgar H. Lehrman Memorial Foundation Arts Council, Inc.

More Information

ljlehrman@nassaulibrary.org – 516-825-2939

Website: www.ljlehrman.artists-in-residence.com