

Fulfilling our Faith –
The Meeting House Living Legacy Circle

All members of the Old Presbyterian Meeting House are invited to become Charter Members of the Meeting House Living Legacy Circle.

The Circle will consist of members of the congregation and supporters of the Old Presbyterian Meeting House who have chosen to support the life and work of the church through bequests, gift annuities, or other deferred gifts, as well as those who are in the process of making such a gift. Members of the Living Legacy Circle will receive periodic reports of the Meeting House long-term development program, will be given the opportunity to meet periodically to support and advance the planned giving legacy at OPMH, and interested members of this group will be asked to take a leadership role in providing overall direction and energy to the legacy giving program at the Meeting House.

The Charter Members of the Meeting House Living Legacy Circle are those members of the Meeting House who, during calendar year 2009, affirm in writing their provision for the mission and ministry of the Old Presbyterian Meeting House through a bequest or other estate plan.

The Meeting House will recognize and pay tribute in various ways to members of the Living Legacy Circle. If you prefer to remain anonymous, we will of course abide by your wishes.
