Sixty-First Annual Meeting

Monday, January 26th
6:00 p.m.

The parish family gathers at 6 pm in the fountain courtyard for lite hors d’oeuvres, libation, and fellowship.

At 6:30 p.m. you are invited to your table for a delicious catered dinner and continued fellowship with fellow parishioners.

At 7:15 the Rector and Vestry invite all to the church for the official 61st Annual Meeting of Trinity-by-the-Cove Episcopal Church.

Please sign the roster to attend this year’s 61st Annual Meeting of the Parish. Cost is $15 per person. Due to space constraints, we are limited to 220 in attendance for the dinner. There are no limits for the meeting.
Dear Parishioners:

As we approach the new year, the Vestry encourages all Trinitarians to reflect on the many blessings that God bestowed on us during 2014. Among these blessings, the Vestry is especially grateful for Father Michael's early announcement of his retirement in 2015, which provided both the Vestry and Trinity with an opportunity to plan for an orderly transition between rectors and the opportunity to reflect upon and properly celebrate Father Michael's rectorship and service to both the parish and our community. Another blessing was the leadership that our Bishop provided as the Vestry discerned how to proceed to select Father Michael's successor. The Vestry is also filled with gratitude for the spirit-filled discernment process that led to the decision to call Father Edward as Trinity's next Rector and for his decision to accept that call.

Planning for this important transition has been in progress since the Spring, and the Vestry has been working closely with both Father Michael and Father Edward to ensure that the transition is as smooth as possible. The Vestry is very pleased with Father Edward's diligence in searching for new associate clergy and it supports and rejoices in his decision to hire both Daniel Moore and Steve Zimmerman as new associate clergy. We look forward to their time at Trinity with a great deal of excitement and anticipation.

During the time that the Vestry was discerning how to proceed to call Trinity's next Rector, the Bishop suggested that Trinity consider "freezing" the Vestry for one year to provide for continuity in Vestry membership during the rector transition. The Vestry has discussed this issue, and has voted unanimously to act on the Bishop's recommendation and to forego the election of new Vestry members at the annual meeting this year and resume Vestry elections at the annual meeting that will be held in January, 2016. This will result in current Vestry members serving four years instead of the usual three years, but this will provide for greater continuity during the rector transition period. We are thankful to the Bishop for this very wise recommendation.

As we begin 2015, which will be Father Michael's final year as Rector, we should all make an effort to enjoy and celebrate Michael's rectorship. Father Michael is the second longest serving Rector in the history of Trinity-by-the-Cove, having served as Rector for fifteen (15) years. He is also the very first rector to retire at Trinity, and it is important that we properly rejoice and celebrate this milestone for both Trinity and Michael. Michael's last day at Trinity will be the Sunday after Easter, April 12, and the Vestry is working on planning a formal celebration on that Sunday to mark the end of Michael's time at Trinity and the beginning of Father Edward's tenure as Rector. While the Vestry has not yet finalized the details of the formal celebration, we anticipate that Michael will celebrate the Eucharist at each service on that Sunday and that we will host a celebration event at the Parish Hall in the evening where we will honor Michael and celebrate his accomplishments as Rector. We will provide more details about his last Sunday as they are finalized. Although we will hold this formal celebration to honor Michael, we encourage all of you not to wait until then to reflect upon him and his time at Trinity. Instead, we encourage each of you to make an effort to appreciate and enjoy Michael and his many gifts now and during each remaining moment of his rectorship.

Finally, the Vestry would like to thank all of you for your continued love and support as we discern God's will regarding how to best lead Trinity-by-the-Cove into the future.

Mick Moore
Senior Warden
Dear Parishioners

Each year as the new year begins we often think of time — time past — time present — time future
Time. Among the great gifts given by Fr. Michael to our parish family is the gift of time.

Father Michael provided our church fifteen years of his vibrant life and rich ministry — what a gift of time. In addition to this gift, Father Michael’s ability to offer a transition period to new leadership affords us another gift of time — the time to move with deliberate discernment in calling me as our next Rector and allow me time to continue to grow. I am deeply grateful for these gifts.

Thanks in large part to this transition period, we are afforded the opportunity to call passionate clergy to join us in our mission to spread the Good News of the Gospel and provide a loving and compassionate environment for the continuing transformation of a life in Christ Jesus. It is with great excitement that I share with you good news and introduce you to two new clergy who will be joining us.

Our first new clergyperson is Daniel Moore whom many of you met and began to know through his internship with us last August. During his internship we were able to see and experience his ministry and discern our interest for him to join us. Daniel has accepted a call to join us as an Associate Rector and will begin in August. Please read more about Daniel in the pages that follow but know this - he is bright, talented and brings with him a love of God and depth of learning sure to enrich and inspire us.

Steve Zimmerman will also join the clergy. Father Steve recently retired from Grace & St. Stephens in Colorado Springs where he served as Rector. He is passionate about adult formation and was recommended to us by Bishop Smith. Fr. Steve will join us in May as a Priest Associate — that means part-time much like Father Tad and Mother Ann.

In the midst of this good news we continue to work to find our third full-time priest as a successor to Mother Alice. Time again is on our side with Daniel and Father Steve joining us in the months to come, we will be positioned for a good summer and fall and have plenty of time to search and call another priest to join us.

As this exciting and challenging work of building the future of Trinity-by-the-Cove unfolds, I cannot express enough my thanksgivings for the time given by Fr. Michael.

Faithfully,

The Rev. Edward Gleason
Starting January 11th, please join us for the Sunday Adult Forums in the Adult Formation Room at 10:15 a.m. Grab yourself a cup of coffee and a nibble first in the parish hall.

Trinity-by-the-Cove is entering a period of transition as the Rector retires and the Rector-elect prepares to take the reins of the parish. At such times, it is often helpful for all of us to get back to the basics, reflecting on our unique and challenging ecclesiastical history and traditions. What does it mean to be an Episcopalian? How did we develop our unique ways of dealing with theology, liturgy, authority and spirituality, those elements that so define our way of living out our faith in community? These Forums will provide all of us with an opportunity to reflect on the history, theology, liturgy and institutional structure of our Episcopal tradition and to consider how it shapes and forms our common life of worship and ministry.

Because of the educational scope and nature of this series, as mentioned above, it will also serve as the educational portion of Focus on Faith for the 2015 season and will be team-taught by the Rev. Ann Stevenson. Anyone who wishes to be confirmed, received or reaffirm their faith commitment when our Bishop visits on Sunday, April 26th should plan on attending these sessions. In addition to the Forums, Mother Ann will make herself available to answer questions following some of these sessions and has also scheduled some gatherings specifically for those who are planning to be received, confirmed or renew their baptismal vows at the Bishop’s visit, sessions designed to allow for additional sharing and interaction. These gatherings with Mother Ann will take place at 11:00 a.m., immediately following the Adult Forums and will end by noon, occurring on January 25th, February 8th, February 22nd, March 8th and March 22nd. At these sessions, topics will include: sharing our spiritual histories, Jesus and the Christian Gospel, the Bible and its authority, Prayer and Service, and the Ethical Life.

If you have any questions about confirmation, reception, or reaffirmation or if you are just interested in the content or scope of the course, please do not hesitate to contact Mother Ann.

The Rev. Steve Zimmerman

Fr. Steve Zimmerman is a native Floridian and has deep roots in the Episcopal Church; his father, H. Lyttleton Zimmerman, was Rector of St. Martin-in-the-Fields in Pompano, Florida. While still in college Steve married Kathryn Dix, his high school sweetheart and they have one child, Jonathan Michael, who lives with his wife, Paulita, in Colorado Springs. After college, Steve taught English and history at All Saints School, in Vicksburg, Mississippi before entering Vanderbilt University to pursue a Masters Degree in English. Upon leaving Vanderbilt, Steve became a community mental health educator in Nashville, TN, and helped to train police officers in recognizing and handling disturbed people under Tennessee's Mental Health Act. As he continued his work and sought a career, he discerned a call to the priesthood.

Fr. Steve graduated cum laude from Virginia Theological Seminary in 1978, was ordained Deacon and Priest in 1978, and served as a curate at St. Marks, Palm Beach Gardens, where he developed a youth group of over forty young people, led annual youth conferences for the diocese, and developed the first Winterlight Youth Conference at Kanuga in North Carolina. Fr. Steve became Rector of All Saints, Grenada, Mississippi in 1980, and continued a ministry of outreach to the neediest people in the community and for adult formation. In 1986, Fr. Steve became Rector of The Chapel of Saint Andrew in Boca Raton, where he developed The Faith-Seeking Journey, a program of new member ministry, and he served in leadership positions in the Diocese.

In 2009, Steve became Priest-in-Charge of Grace and St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Colorado Springs, CO, which was a role that required great talent and a healing hand due to the former rector’s attempt to take the parish out of the Episcopal Church. Fr. Steve was elected Rector of the parish in 2011, and served Grace and St. Stephen's until his retirement in 2014 when he and Kathy moved to Florida.

Daniel Moore

In August we look forward to welcoming Daniel Moore to Trinity-by-the-Cove as an Associate Rector and welcoming his family into our community. Daniel is 32 years old and has been married to his wife, Kristin, for eight years; they have two children, Madeleine, age 6, Jon, age 4 and their third on the way (due in May). Daniel is originally from Charlottesville, Virginia. Daniel has a background in English and philosophy; he studied at James Madison University, receiving a B.A. magna cum laude in 2005, and went on to receive a Master of Arts in Medieval Literature at the University of Virginia in 2009, before pursuing ordained ministry. Daniel is finishing up his third year at Duke Divinity School and will receive a M.Div. in May.

In addition to his school work, Daniel completed a unit in Clinical Pastoral Education at Duke University Hospital, and interned for St. Stephen’s Episcopal Church in Durham and the Church of the Holy Family in Chapel Hill. Perhaps even better, Daniel interned with us last summer. We were fed by his sermons, his prayerful presence, and his enthusiasm about the mission and ministry of the church.

Daniel will be ordained in the Diocese of Virginia as a transitional deacon in June. You might ask, what’s a transitional deacon? Get ready to learn more about how ordination for priests works: Priests are ordained deacon first and then church law says they can be ordained priest six months later. Each Diocese in the Episcopal Church seems to time ordination a little differently with some seminarians being ordained priest right out of seminary and some having to wait until sometime following graduation. In Daniel’s life, we’ll see him function as a deacon when he arrives with us in August and then we’ll get to host his ordination service sometime in December.

It is of interest too that Kristin is a wonderful photographer and has been at work while Daniel has been in seminary. The Moores will reside in the Autumn Woods House (owned by Trinity by the Cove) and preparations are underway to make that house the Moores’ home.
The Fine Art of Living events are fast approaching and this is just a reminder that you don’t want to miss two exciting opportunities.

THE FINE ART OF CULTURE

Will take place on Saturday evening, February 7th at the Port Royal Club where you will travel around the world to Morocco, Japan, Italy and France. While celebrating the culture of these great countries you will enjoy great food, exquisite wines, and be entertained by belly dancers, snake charmers, drummers, opera singers, can-can dancers and a cabaret singer. You will also have opportunity to bid on some “must have” auction items. This is guaranteed to be an exciting and fun-filled evening.

THE FINE ART OF DESIGN

At a Thursday March 5th Port Royal Club luncheon, you will meet Thomas Jayne, a noted interior designer, architect, art historian and author. He brings a unique voice, steeped in the history of the interior and the objects linked to it, to his works. Jayne Design Studio is featured on Architectural Digest’s current AD100 list of best American Decorators and Architects and Elle Décor’s A List of American designers. His book “The Finest Rooms in America” will be available for purchase and signing. Auction items will compliment the subject of design. Please watch for an interview with Thomas Jayne in the March issue of Naples Illustrated that will be available in late February.

So…. If you have not returned your RSVP for The Fine of Art of Living events, do so today to insure your place is reserved. If you have any questions, please call the Fine Art of Living office – 239-262-0353.

We look forward to enjoying these events with all of you.
Build a Pilgrimage, Build a Pilgrim
A Wall of Support for our Youth

Beginning Sunday January 4th, you will see a new feature in the parish hall—Build a Pilgrimage, Build a Pilgrim, A Wall of Support for our Youth. The youth are raising money for their pilgrimage to England and Northern France next spring. The youth pilgrimage has been a part of our ministry and formation for youth since 2003—the 2015 pilgrimage will be Trinity’s fifth pilgrimage! Parents support and contribute to the expenses of the pilgrimage, but your help is greatly appreciated to give the pilgrims a once-in-a lifetime faith experience that they will carry with them for the rest of their lives.

Here’s how the Wall of Support works:

There is a bulletin board in the parish hall with 200 envelopes, each numbered with a dollar amount from $1-$200. You are invited to take a numbered envelope and bring it back with the amount indicated. It’s that simple! Some of the envelopes have a surprise gift card inside as well. That surprise is yours to keep!

Thank you for your generosity and look for the pilgrims at the Wall of Support so that you can encourage them not just with a gift of money, but with the gift of encouragement.

Men’s Bible Group

Restarts Thursday, January 8th @ 9:00 a.m.

The Men’s Study Group meets on Thursday mornings at 9:00 am in the family room off the main parish hall. The group engages in Bible study and in reading and discussing various books dealing with religious or historical themes.

On January 8th, the Group will begin its discussion of Jon Meacham's American Gospel: God, the Founding Fathers, and the Making of the Nation, a work that examines our nation grappling with issues of faith and government from the nation's founding to Martin Luther King, Jrs. campaign for civil rights. Copies of the book are available in the office. Please join us for what promises to be a lively and interesting discussion.

Thursday Women’s Bible Study

resumes on January, 8th

On January 8th, the Thursday Women’s Bible Study resumes their discussion on Change, Facing the Unexpected. (booklets are available for $8.00 on the pew outside Polly’s office).

We have changed our gathering time a bit to correspond with the men’s group: from 9:00-9:15 settling in with coffee and fellowship; 9:15 to 10:15 Bible study and discussion.

We pick up our discussion on number 5. Newcomers are always welcome; it won’t take you any time at all to catch up and we would love to have you join us.

The Rev. Ann Stevenson

Men of Trinity

Breakfast Gathering

Monday, January 12th, 8:00 a.m.

All men of the parish are invited to join us for our next monthly gathering on Monday, January 12th at 8:00 a.m. in the parish hall for a delicious breakfast followed by the guest speaker.

In January, we are pleased to welcome Mr. John Sorey, Mayor of the City of Naples, as our speaker. Mayor Sorey will share with us some future plans and challenges for our fair town and will be open to answering your questions.

Please sign up in the Parish Hall if you plan to attend and/or contact Mark Goebel at mark.c.goebel@gmail or 239.595.3921 with any questions.

If you are new to Trinity-by-the-Cove, this is a terrific way to get to know some of your fellow parishioners. And, it will give us a chance to welcome you!
Literacy tutors needed

Do you want to join fellow parishioners who are tutoring non-English speaking citizens and their families? Opportunities to participate include:

- PACT (Parent and Child Together) in which tutors teach parents of Pre-K students how to read a series of 12 books in English
- Individual tutoring of adults
- Teaching classes of adults

Trinitarians have found these service ministries highly rewarding. If you have a few hours available each week, come and join the Literacy Volunteers. There is an informational session at 1 PM, Thursday, January 8th, 2015. To sign up, email Jim Wheeler, call 398-3620 or email jw2447@me.com. There is also a sign-up sheet in the Parish Hall. You may obtain more information on the website: Literacy Volunteers of Collier County, or call Linda Stewart.

SAGES

(Seniors are God’s Experienced Servants)

Here is your opportunity to visit the newly renovated and expanded Botanical Gardens that has been highly praised for its beauty and innovation.

On Thursday, January 15th the SAGES group invites you to join them at the Gardens entrance at 9:55 sharp for a guided walking (slowly) tour followed by lunch. Total cost including lunch is only $35 per person. Please sign the roster in the Parish Hall to help us with planning.

Looking ahead to February, the SAGES will gather together for a catered luncheon in the Parish Hall with an “Artful” presentation by our fellow parishioner Mary Teschner.

Please join us...we have FUN. Have a question about SAGES? call Lorry or Clyde McBride, 300-4705.

RECTOR’S CLASS

Wednesdays, 10:15 a.m.
Adult Formation Room

Fr. Michael will be facilitating the study using a book by Desmond and Mpho Tutu titled The Book of Forgiving. Books will be available for purchase in the office or you can purchase from your favorite bookstore.

MUSIC AT TRINITY

Sunday, January 11th at 4:00 p.m.
Oboe, English Horn and Strings
music by Britten, Mozart an Françaix

On Sunday, January 11th at 4 o’clock, oboist Catherine Weinfield will play a concert with violin, viola and cello. You’ll hear works by Mozart, Britten, and the rarely-heard Quartet for English horn and three strings by Jean Françaix, which demonstrates the fascinating timbres of the English horn. No tickets or reservations are required; a free-will offering will be taken, and a reception follows in the Parish Hall.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Habitour: Saturday Jan. 17, 9AM – Noon. We will depart from the Parish Hall for a bus tour of current projects conducted by Habitat Staff. This is an opportunity to learn more about the Habitat program and how Trinitarians can continue to make a difference. Please sign up in the Parish Hall or email trip coordinator Anne Foster annnewoody@comcast.net.

Habitat Building Day: Saturday Jan. 24th, 8:00 a.m. to noon. Our Service Commission will spend the morning at one of the local building sites with hands-on assistance. The jobs vary from hammering nails, painting, cleaning or whatever else needs doing. It is a great opportunity for fellowship as well. Details on the exact location will be posted along with a sign-up in the Parish Hall. For more information or to sign up by email, contact Jim Wheeler 239-398-3620 or jw2447@me.com.
You are invited to join the Women of Trinity for their January luncheon and meeting on Tuesday, January 20th at noon in the Parish Hall.

Following a delicious catered lunch, featured speaker Ed Carlson, Director Emeritus of the Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary will share his insights and knowledge on the Sanctuary and the vital role it plays in our ecosystem today. Mr. Carlson has the credentials to back up this knowledge: he served as the Director of the Sanctuary for twenty-eight years and still sits on the Board of the Directors, as well as with other organizations such as the Everglades Wetland Restoration Center and the Naples Botanical Gardens.

Please sign the roster in the hall and consider asking a friend to join you for this very interesting and enjoyable luncheon.

Jambalaya Extravaganza

Supporting Youth Pilgrimage

Mark your calendars! On Friday January 23rd we’ll have a New Orleans Jambalaya dinner to support our youth (children grades 6-12). Cost for the dinner is $15 per person (children eat for free).

Our 2015 youth pilgrims will help Fr. Edward cook up a New Orleans dinner of jambalaya, green salad, rolls, and bread pudding with bourbon sauce—it’s a New Orleans staple!

But, this is more than dinner, it’s an occasion! It’s an occasion to support the youth pilgrimage in 2015. The evening will begin with Evensong featuring the antique organ played by Dr. Fenstermaker. The youth will officiate our worship as they give thanks for their community of faith and as we give thanks for them. While our youth help to serve dinner, you will have an opportunity to see and hear about their upcoming pilgrimage and get to know some of our younger parishioners at Trinity-by-the-Cove.

Audio Ministry Opportunity

One of the little known facts about worship at Trinity-by-the-Cove is that we have the capability of recording the audio for services. Recordings offer the opportunity to use worship music in slideshows or videos that highlight or mission and ministry. The recordings also offer the opportunity for clergy and musicians to listen to the worship to see how we might better praise and glorify God.

This wonderful opportunity does not come without a challenge. Both Fr. Edward and Dr. Fenstermaker are stretched for time in cataloguing and cleaning up the computer audio files. If you have computer skills that can modify audio files and archive them, and you can help out, please contact Fr. Edward. egleason@trinitybythecove.com

An Invitation to Talk about Retirement

Naples, and all of Southwest Florida, is an interesting place to engage in ministry. In addition to the seasonality of our city and church, many new Neapolitans are recently retired. This offers us an opportunity for mission and ministry! Fr. Edward is looking for several people to talk to about their retirement.

What went well? What went poorly? How do you find renewed passion in Naples after working for so many years? What can Trinity-by-the-Cove do to be a place to help new retirees explore their post-work lives and find a passion within the church through worship, fellowship, formation and service to others. Contact Fr. Edward: egleason@trinitybythecove.com
Salvation Army Toys for Tots

Trinity volunteers once again assisted the Salvation Army and the US Marine Corps in selecting, packing and loading toys and food for local needy families. Thanks for the hard work to volunteers Gwendolyn McLaughlin, Jana Kirk, Joy & George Kundahl, Hilary Raines, Laurie Blatt, Barbro Wilson, Sally & Tom Melvin, Joan Orr, and Pat Wheeler.

Community Grants Recipients
Following are two stories of how Trinity helped two families by the use of the grant given to the Salvation Army made possible by the funds raised by Trinity through the Fine Art of Living Events last year, and monies earned by the Women of Trinity through the Christmas Market and the Church Mouse sales:

Story #1 - The past couple of years have been difficult for Jones family. In 2014, she was seriously injured in a car accident, and a constant stream of medical bills has been pouring into the mailbox ever since. Even with her husband’s income, it’s not always possible to afford enough food for themselves and their 6-year-old daughter. But thanks to your generosity, the household can visit The Salvation Army Naples Regional Coordinate Emergency Food Pantry, to stock up on essentials like canned meat, fruits and vegetables.

Now the household can use the food received to make meals that will help stretch their household’s food budget and keep their daughter growing strong. “Thank you,” she says. “We’re so glad to be able to come here. It’s a lot of food that’s good to eat – it’s nutritious.”

Story #2 – Rachel is a single mom raising two sons. Her youngest has severe autism and needs Rachel’s full-time care. Right now, the family’s only income is in the form of child support and her son’s disability benefits.

Not long ago, she realized that her family wouldn’t make it without help, so Rachel did some research and located The Salvation Army Naples Regional Coordinate Emergency Food Pantry. She’s able to pick up food and other staples she can’t afford to buy right now. Rachel’s youngest son loves going with her to the food pantry. Rachel doesn’t always need the help, but she’s so glad to know it’s there when she does. “We’re very grateful,” she says with a look of relief.

You’ve helped to make a difference in the lives of these hungry neighbors, thanks to your participation and support of the Fine Art of Living events, the Church Mouse sales and the yearly Christmas Market.

Jim Wheeler, Service Commission Chair

Sewing for Hope Ministry

If you were in church on Sunday, November 30th, you witnessed the results of the hard work and dedication of the wonderful ministry called Sewing for Hope. Eight of our fellow parishioners are joined by others in our community who like to sew and on that Sunday they presented over 500 dresses to be blessed at our four liturgies.

Chair Lis Wilson reported that since its inception this ministry has sent over 2000 dresses to the orphan girls in Tanzania who have lost their parents due to AIDS. Through the Tumaini Fund, which is home-based in Guernsey, these children are also helped financially. Many of you purchased bikes at Christmas time which is another way to support the children; this allows them to make the trip back and forth to school instead of on foot!

Founder of the Tumaini Fund, Dr. Susan Wilson, returns to Naples February 12-23rd and this year will be accompanied by a young man, Alex, who now works for Tumaini Fund and was once a Tumaini orphan.

Each dress is made following a simple pattern and is now sent with a coordinating T-shirt. You don’t have to be a sewer to help: you could help by purchasing the t-shirts, you could offer to cut out the patterns, or if you knit you could make a small “Izzy doll.”

Contact Lis Wilson with any questions or to offer your help: lisbeth707@earthlink.net.
Looking Ahead

Although icons have been an integral part of worship and prayer in the Eastern Orthodox Church for hundreds of years, today many Western Christians find them to be a rich resource for spiritual growth. In addition to praying with icons, some have found that actually writing (i.e. painting) an icon of their own can be a moving experience.

Small icon-writing classes have been led by Rebecca Taylor at Trinity-by-the-Cove annually since 2008. Rebecca is a highly respected iconographer in the Byzantine tradition and a gentle teacher with 20 years of experience. NO PREVIOUS ART BACKGROUND IS NECESSARY, just ask the clergy. The process consists of a series of traditional and well-defined steps with help from the instructor. There is no competition; writing an icon is a spiritual exercise, framed by prayer and Christian fellowship.

This year’s subject will be the Resurrection with various options. The picture here is one. The workshop runs from 9 to 4 each day beginning with a brief period of prayer and discussion of the history of icons. Participants bring their lunch and we enjoy a social time at midday. The instructor provides most materials (including gold leaf). Participants provide their own panel and brushes. The cost of the class is $400 with a deposit of $100 required by February 7.

If you would like to take part in this class or if you have any questions, please email Susan LaPointe, lapointesr@embarqmail.com.

February 4th
Wednesday Night Out
Professor Peter Hawkins
6:00 p.m., $15 per person

We are very pleased to welcome Professor Peter Hawkins back to Naples for his second visit. Author of over ten books on a wide range of topics, Professor Hawkins is well-known for his knowledge and expertise on Dante. He writes regularly for the Christian Century’s “Living by the Word” column and has served on the editorial boards of PLML and Christianity and Literature.

His topic will be The Psalms and Poetry. What does it mean to have a collection of poetry in the middle of the Hebrew Bible? What is the range of experience it presents, and how does poetry “do” theology in a distinctive way. The fact is, especially in English, the Psalms have inspired poets for centuries to offer their own version of praise and lament with examples of George Herbert, Gerard Manley Hopkins, Jacqueline Osherow.

LENTEN MORNING OF REFLECTION
Wednesday, March 4th, 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
LOOKING for GOD
presented by The Rev. Tad Meyer

This Lenten morning of reflection will focus on the ways in which we "look" for God within the fabric of our everyday lives, seeking to discover and deepen the ways that we are attentive and receptive to God’s presence within the mundane patterns of daily life. The morning will feature three brief addresses by Fr. Tad with plenty of time for reflection and prayer. Please join us as we make our prayerful journey through Lent.

The Daughters of the King will provide a pick up breakfast from 9:00 to 9:30. The Eucharist will follow and include Fr. Tad’s first set of remarks. We will continue with periods of meditation and further remarks from Fr. Tad. The morning concludes with the noonday office. Add this time to your calendar now and watch for a sign-up board in the parish hall.

Men's Lenten Retreat

February 20th and 21st, 2015

In the late afternoon and evening of Friday, February 20th and the morning of the 21st, Trinity-by-the-Cove will offer a very special time of retreat for the men of the parish, led by Brother Geoffrey Tristram, superior of the order of the Society of St. John the Evangelist, an Episcopal monastic order.

The retreat will take place in the Rectory and Church and surrounding grounds and will focus on meditative practices and contemplative prayer. Dinner on the 20th and lunch on the 21st will be provided. Mark your calendars and plan to join us for what promises to be a very meaningful way to engage the Lenten season.

Youth Pilgrimage 2015

(March 14-23)

WHY PILGRIMAGE?

A theologian wrote about the difference between being a tourist in life and being a pilgrim. “Tourists are those who ‘dabble,’ making their rounds and traveling into new territory, but not allowing that territory in any way to change or move them. When we are tourists we attempt to keep the serious things we encounter along the way at arm’s length. When we are pilgrims, on the other hand, we make our rounds with a purpose, and allow the terrain we cover to move us, indeed change us.”

As part of the confirmation experience at Trinity-by-the-Cove, youth are offered the opportunity to walk a pilgrimage—to truly experience and step into a spiritual moment that will change them into sons and daughters of God who more deeply love God and their neighbor. This experience is offered triennially by Trinity-by-the-Cove and this year is in March.

The pilgrims making the journey are Taylor Brewer, Madison Moore, Amanda Pasler, Jack Bole and Peter Gray. They will be accompanied by Fr. Edward and his wife, Virginia.

2016 Exploring Adult Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

Several Trinitarians have expressed interest in planning and participating in a Trinity-by-the-Cove pilgrimage to the Holy Land sometime in 2016. Several years ago Trinitarians went to Greece and Turkey and the experience was one that enriched their faith and provided added bonds of fellowship. If you are interested in exploring whether a pilgrimage to the Holy Land is right for you, please email Fr. Edward.

Standing Notices

- The Sacrament of Holy Baptism is celebrated at the Easter Vigil, the Day of Pentecost, All Saints’ Day or the Sunday after All Saints’ Day, and on the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord (the First Sunday after the Epiphany). Baptisms are reserved for these occasions or when the Bishop is present.

- The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony is offered to members of the parish, in good standing, and members of their immediate family. Lent is not a suitable season.

- It is expected for the parish office to be informed when a member of the parish is hospitalized in order to secure the ministrations of the church.

- The Sacrament of Holy Unction is administered at the Healing Service on the second Thursday of each month at 12:00 p.m.
