Beginning Wednesday, January 16 . . .

“Happy? What It Is and How to Find It”

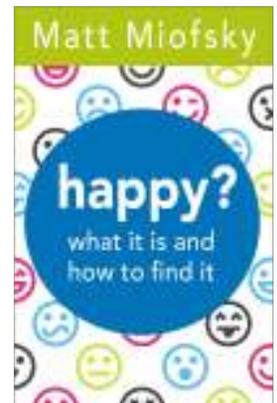

Many people live with “If only . . .” — “If only I could lose weight,” “If only I could find the right job,” “If only I had more money, then I’d truly be happy.” In his book, pastor Matt Miofsky connects our deep desires with basic theology and biblical texts that will help us redefine happiness and make our way forward in Christ. This four-session video-based small group covers topics such as “Nothing Will Make You Happy,” “The Art of Forgiveness,” and “Beyond Circumstances.”

When: Wednesdays, 6:30 p.m.

Where: Room 214

Facilitator: Tom Allen

Cost: $10 for study guide

Beginning Sunday, January 27 . . .

“Fight Back with Joy: Celebrate More. Regret Less. Stare Down Your Greatest Fears”

No matter what your circumstances, you can practice joy and embrace a life that’s richer and fuller—a life radiant with joy. This six-week video-based small group will focus on:

- expanding your joy threshold by awakening to God’s love for you
- escaping fear and regret by applying biblical strategies to whatever crises you may face
- discovering freedom from the past by learning how to turn mourning into joy.

When: Sundays, 6:00 p.m.

Where: Room 216

Facilitator: Tina Finkelstein

Cost: $15 for the book
