REVEREND JOSEPH W. LYLES
Pastor and Revivalist
The eye represents an all-seeing eye, which symbolizes clear vision. The seven-link chain above the eye is a symbol of unity.

The Deacons’ Association was organized October 3, 1919 at Peace Baptist Church in Washington, DC. Four years later, on December 17, 1923, at Israel Baptist Church, the Women’s Auxiliary was organized. The Youth Department was organized in January 1972 at First Baptist Church, New Hampshire Avenue and Randolph Street, NW, Washington, DC, and our Young Adult Department was organized March 2010 in Washington, DC.

Through the guidance of the past and present presidents of this association, lives have been richly blessed. We are about God’s business. He gave us a mind to think, hands to work, and feet to walk. This means we are equipped to learn about God’s word and have an effect upon other Deacons, Deaconesses, and Christian women.

We thank each member for their dedication and faithfulness to this association.

Good bless.

Deacon Reginald Hardman
Parent Body President

Deaconess Alma Edwards
Auxiliary President

Master Curtis McInnis
Youth Department President

Sister Dominique Glover
Young Adult President
Greetings from Your Chairperson

Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul and forget not all His benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases."

Psalm 103: 1-3

On behalf of the General Baptist Deacons’ Association of Washington, DC and Vicinity, the Women’s Auxiliary, Young Adult and Youth Departments, we welcome you to our Annual Revival.

To Reverend Joseph W. Lyles, we thank you for accepting our invitation to be our Revivalist this year and for opening the doors of Fort Foote Baptist Church to us. We are going to have a high time in the Lord. I know that God is going to bless us real good. Mrs. Sheila Lyles, we want you to be with us each night.

A special thanks to your officers, ministers, congregation, musicians, choirs, and ushers and to all of the visitors for taking a part in this great Revival.

Love,

Deaconess Ruby Owens
and the Revival Committee
Congratulations

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate the General Baptist Deacons’ Association of Washington, DC and Vicinity and Its Auxiliaries on its Anniversary and Installation Services. Your dedication, diligence and commitment to service in the Lord Jesus for ninety-three years is a matter of your faithfulness and an awe-inspiring testimony. Rendering laudable service for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is not a menial task. Rather it is a testimony of God’s graciousness to His soldiers who are on the battlefield for the cause of His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. This is further evidenced by the fact that we are still here as servants for God’s purpose. Finally, I would like to express my deep appreciation to the General Baptist Deacons’ Association of Washington, DC and Vicinity and Its Auxiliaries on the installation of the incoming officers. May God “Make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Hebrews 13:21 KJV

Yours in Christ,

Deacon Reginald L. Hardman
Parent President
General Baptist Deacons’ Association of Washington, DC and Vicinity and Its Auxiliaries
Greetings

We have come together one more time for our Annual Revival. God has brought us thus far on the way, and we need to give Him thanks. Psalms 34:1 says, “I will bless the Lord at all times. His praise shall continually be in my mouth.”

Revivals are meant to reinvigorate us spiritually and help us to rekindle our relationship with God.

Have you ever noticed that a flower when taken out of water tends to wither, but when you give it water, it begins to revive itself? That is just the way we are sometimes when the trials and tribulations of this world get us down and we need God’s word to help us to run on to see what the end will be.

We must stay connected to the vine because without Him, we can do nothing. We come with great anticipation looking for a word from the Lord.

To God Be the Glory!

Deaconess Alma Edwards
Women’s Auxiliary President
Reverend Joseph W. Lyles, Pastor

Born in the District of Columbia, Reverend Joseph W. Lyles was educated in Waldorf, Maryland. He is married to the former Sheila Marie Countiss.

Reverend Lyles received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Glenville State College in Glenville, West Virginia, and his Masters of Divinity from Howard University in Washington, DC. Presently, he is pursuing his Doctorate at the Howard University School of Divinity.

He received Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at the age of 16 while participating in a religious camp meeting in Damascus, Maryland. He has been a devout servant of the Lord since that time. In 1981, Reverend Lyles joined the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, Washington, DC and served as a Deacon for three and one-half years. The Lord continued to shower him with His blessings by allowing him to become a very faithful and committed servant to this office and gave him the opportunity to observe and participate in the total church program. During this time, he was under the spiritual care of the late Reverend Dr. David Durham, his pastor. Recognizing the potential and desire Reverend Lyles had to spread the Word of God, Reverend Durham willingly shared much of his spiritual insight and wisdom with him.

On February 7, 1988, Reverend Lyles was licensed to preach the Gospel at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. Shortly thereafter, in January 1990, Reverend Lyles was selected to serve as interim pastor of the Fort Foote Baptist Church, and on April 8, 1990, Reverend Lyles was installed as the seventh Pastor of Fort Foote Baptist Church.

His primary goal is to be a “Servant of God” forever. Since 1990, over 1,200 members have been added to the church membership. Sunday School attendance and Bible study have increased significantly. The church has over 40 committees, ministries, and support groups, as well as a Child Development Center. With God’s continued blessings and guidance, Fort Foote Baptist Church continues to grow, climbing to the heights in meeting the spiritual needs of the changing Fort Foote community. The groundbreaking ceremony was held on August 19, 2000 for a new edifice, with additional classrooms for Sunday School and Christian education. The new building was completed in December 2001.

Reverend Lyles served as 1st Vice President of the African American Fellowship of the Southern Baptist Convention for one and one-half years. In March of 1998, Reverend Lyles took on the position of President of the organization and served in that capacity for three years. In March 2009, he was honored at the WYCB 7th Annual Prayer Breakfast. He was invited to the White House to participate in the Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships meeting with government and faith leaders. He is on the Board of Trustees for the District of Columbia Baptist Convention Foundation.

2008, he led the first Missions Ministry to perform community outreach assistance (plumbing, painting, home repairs, lawn care, electrical repair, evangelism, etc.) for seniors and single parents in Prince George’s and Charles Counties. The community outreach continues to be an annual church-wide activity.

Favorite scripture: Philippians 3:13-14, “Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”

“Jesus Is All the World to Me”

Jesus is all the world to me, My life, my joy, my all;
He is my strength from day to day, Without Him I would fall.
When I am sad, to Him I go, No other one can cheer me so.
When I am sad, He makes me glad, He’s my friend.

Jesus is all the world to me, My friend in trials sore;
I go to Him for blessings, and He gives them o’er and o’er:
He send the sunshine and the rain, He send the harvest’s golden grain;
Sunshine and rain, harvest of grain, He’s my friend.

Jesus is all the world to me, And true to Him I’ll be;
Oh, how could I this friend deny, When He’s so true to me?
Following Him I know I’m right, He watches o’er me day and night;
Following Him by day and night, He’s my friend.

Jesus is all the world to me, I want no better friend;
I trust Him now, I’ll trust Him when Life’s fleeting days shall end:
Beautiful life with such a friend, Beautiful life that has no end;
Eternal life, eternal joy, He’s my friend.
