

“Racism, Poverty and Church Vitality”
International Peacemaker Visit

October 1-October 7, 2019

Mabuchi Ndhlovu

Director of community schools for vulnerable and marginalized children with the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian (CCAP) Synod of Zambia

Mabuchi Ndhlovu oversees 32 community schools with 220 volunteer teachers that serve 6,200 orphans and vulnerable students. She has provided leadership in topics such as household dialogue, community health, caregiver training for home-based care groups, and handling children with trauma. Her work with the CCAP also supports refugees, promotes health and wellness, and addresses oppression and violence. She is a teacher and counselor by profession, married, and a mother of 4 children.

Mabuchi will be speaking at the PEVA Presbyterian Women’s (PW) Fall Gathering on Sat. Oct. 5, 2019 at Stone House Presbyterian Church (9401 Fieldstone Parkway, Toano, VA 23168) 8:30 a.m.- 12:30 p.m.

If your church is interested in having the peacemaker visit your church for an event or fellowship, please contact the Rev. Alex Creager acreager@shpchurch.org