Overview, Introduction and Guiding Principles

1. These guidelines are provided by the Presbytery of Eastern Virginia (PEVA) as an aide in determining fair and equitable compensation for Ministers of the Word and Sacrament, Commissioned Pastors, and Certified Christian Educators.
2. These guidelines are established with the understanding that compensation should be reasonable, just, and fair to all church staff and the congregation they serve.
3. These guidelines are to be used whenever a pastoral call form, temporary relationship agreement, or transitional pastoral covenant is negotiated.
4. For the peace, unity and effectiveness of the body of Christ, acceptance of these guidelines is essential as church staff and congregations work together to carry out the Great Ends of the church. Each congregation in PEVA, through its Session, will enter dialogue with their church staff so that the concerns of each can be shared and fair compensation can be established.

2. Housing Allowance – an amount paid to the member for housing, utilities and/or furnishing allowances in lieu of a Manse.
3. Manse and Manse Allowance – a physical home, utilities, and furnishing allowance provided by the church to the member.

5. Total Effective Salary – Cash Salary (including employee contributions to 403(b)(9) plans, tax-sheltered annuity plans, and salary reduction contributions); Housing allowance or Manse value, and SECA in excess of 7.65%.
6. Board of Pensions Dues – the amount paid by the church which provides Health, Pension, Death and Disability benefits to the member. Dues are determined by a percentage of the Total Effective Salary for members in the Pastors' Participation Plan. For Pastors, Commissioned Pastors, and Certified Christian Educator's enrolled in the BOP Menu Plan, dues are calculated by the BOP annually for particular benefits.
7. Continuing Education – the amount paid by the church for vouchered educational expenses including but not limited to courses, conferences, and independent study expenses. 11. Minimum Compensation – the Base Salary and terms a church is required to offer a member as set by the Commission on Ministry.
12. Experience Factor – experience, additional education and training, and years in service to the church should be considered by each church in determining the annual salary and housing offered to church staff.
13. Demographic Considerations – cost of living of the location in which the church is situated should be considered by each church in determining the compensation offered to church staff.
14. Vacation – four (4) weeks (20 days plus weekends) for personal use including four (4) Sundays annually (28 days total). Scheduled days off should not be deducted as vacation days. (Ex. A Pastor's regular days off are Saturday and Monday. The pastor is requesting vacation for the week of Sunday, August 16 thru Saturday, August 22. The vacation days deducted would be Sunday, Tuesday – Friday.)

16. Weekend Equivalent– two (2) days every seven (7) days provided to the member, not including Sunday.

Planning Fair Compensation

Minimum Compensation - All Calls to full time ministerial services must meet or exceed these minimums. Part-time installed and temporary relationships of 20 hours or more shall also be subject to proportional minimum standards. Compensation includes salary, housing and utilities (or the value of housing and utilities when a Manse is provided by the church), and such portions of the Self-Employed Contributions (SECA) that is not otherwise paid by the congregation.

For 2022, the Full-time Minimum Compensation:

A. Total Effective Salary	$48,453.00
B. Board of Pension Dues – 37% of Total Effective Salary	$17,928.00
C. SECA – 7.65% of Cash Salary and Housing Allowance	$3,707.00
D. Continuing Education – 2 weeks and $1,000.00 annually	$1,000.00
E. Professional Expenses	$3,000.00
F. Mileage – vouchered at current IRS rate
G. Vacation – 4 weeks, including 4 Sundays

Optional Benefits - Churches may offer Optional Benefits on their own or through the Board of Pensions. Such Optional Benefits may include: Dental Insurance, Term Life Insurance, contributions to a Retirement Savings Plan, an additional or members portion of SECA (in effect, 15% total). Such Optional Benefits are included in determining a member's Total Effective Salary (and are a cost to the church) but may not be taxable to the member. Unvouchered allowances, bonuses and gifts paid by or through the employing organization are included in Total Effective Salary.

Note: When optional benefits, reimbursed expenses, and other terms exceed the minimum requirements, the excess may be used to determine if the total annual compensation meets the Minimum Expectations.

Additional Considerations - In determining salary and other compensation congregations should take into account:

- Experience, additional education and training, and years in service to the church.
- The cost of living for the location in which the church is situated.
- Church size and the responsibilities of the position.
