WORKBOOK FOR CLERKS OF SESSION
Presbytery of Eastern Virginia
Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

PREAMBLE – This workbook is designed to assist clerks of sessions in the performance of their duties and highlights Book of Order requirements to ensure full and accurate records are kept and maintained. This workbook will also assist you in your preparation for the Presbytery review of your church’s Sessional and Congregational Records. If you have any suggestions, please contact the Committee. Should you have any questions please contact your examiner or the Stated Clerk at the Presbytery Office.

..... From the Sessional Records Committee of the Presbytery of Eastern Virginia.

A. RESPONSIBILITIES.

The Presbytery’s Sessional Records Committee has the responsibility for reviewing Sessional Records of congregations. The Committee wishes to be of assistance to each Clerk of Session, in helping to keep good permanent records of the Church and having these records in proper condition for review by the Presbytery. With this in mind, this workbook was developed.

If you need additional materials or have questions, do not hesitate to contact the Committee through the Presbytery Office. Please address the Sessional Records Committee at:

Presbytery of Eastern Virginia
801 Loudoun Avenue
Portsmouth, VA 23707-3216
Phone: 757-397-7063 (South Hampton Roads and Peninsula)
1-800-989-2193 (All other areas)
FAX: (757) 397-7246

B. INSTRUCTIONS.

Please note in matters relating to review of Sessional Records:

1. Each session is to submit its Sessional and Congregational records for annual review by the Sessional Records Review Committee, as scheduled on page 8. (G-3.0108)
2. Each session is to prepare, record, and submit reports as requested by the Stated Clerk of Presbytery and/or other authorized persons of Presbytery.
3. The Annual Statistical Report to Presbytery is to be recorded in the Sessional Minutes and is to be suitably published to the congregation. A printed record of the on-line submitted statistical report should be included in the Sessional records.
4. The submitted pages of the Sessional Record are to be numbered consecutively, to insure against loss or disarrangement of the records.
5. The Committee urges you to submit certified photo copies rather than the original documents, to avoid possible loss of the “originals” and the fact that for up to two months, you would not have easy access to the documents while in the hands of the Committee’s reviewer. These Certified photocopies, being exact duplicates of the original, would have all the proper signatures and related appended documents. When only computer run-offs or inexact copies are produced for review, sometimes signatures and documents noted as “listed in the Minutes” are mistakenly omitted.
6. The Certificate of Review indicating Presbytery’s action on the previous records, is to be inserted in the permanent record at the proper place and submitted with the records for review.
7. Certified copies are to include a copy of the last Certificate of Review and complete records including Minutes of the most recently approved Session and Congregational Meetings.

8. Manual of Administrative Operations (approved or draft version) will be included with submitted documents (G-3.0106).

9. Date of Incorporation and Bylaws is to be annotated on the “Report of Clerk of Session” Worksheet.

The following statement is to be placed preceding the first page of the Records being reviewed:

“The attached copies are a true and accurate record of the proceedings of the session
Of the _____ Presbyterian Church of _____, Virginia
Between _____, 201_ and _____, 201_.”

(Signed by Clerk of Session)

(Signed by Moderator)

Note: Statement to be signed by moderator in a pastoral relationship with the church (Pastor, Stated Supply, Interim Pastor).

Please arrange to have your records picked up at the Presbytery meeting following your submission.

C. HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 2013/2015 FORM OF GOVERNMENT

D. ELECTRONIC MEETINGS.

Robert’s Rule allows for the use of electronic meetings if they are authorized in the by-laws.

The use of e-mail, or other electronic means, for meetings will be provided for in the Manual of Administrative Operations, have established guidelines, and be used with care. It should be the exception and not the norm as it does not provide for simultaneous communication and deliberate process.

All members qualified to vote must be included. Those without e-mail and those that do not read e-mail on a daily basis must be notified. If one person objects to the matter being discussed or wants to discuss in detail the matter should be handled in a called meeting or wait until the next stated meeting.

Follow-up at the next meeting and report any action in the session minutes.

H. Excerpt from ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, NEWLY REVISED

§ 48 MINUTES AND REPORTS

The record of the proceedings of a deliberative assembly is usually called the Minutes... In an ordinary society ... they should contain mainly a record of what was done at the meeting, not what was said by the members. The Minutes should never reflect the secretary's opinion, favorable or otherwise, on anything said or done.

CONTENT OF MINUTES:

The first paragraph of the Minutes should contain the following information (which need not, however, be divided into numbered or separated items directly corresponding to those below):

1. the kind of meeting: (i.e. Stated, Called, etc.)
2. the name of the assembly
3. the date and time of meeting, and the place
4. the fact that the regular (Moderator) and (Clerk) were present or, in their absence, the names of the persons who substituted for them;
5. and whether the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved (as read or as corrected), the date of that meeting being given if it was other than a regular business meeting. Any corrections are made in the text of the minutes being approved; the minutes of the meeting making the corrections merely state that the minutes were approved "as corrected".

The body of the minutes should contain a separate paragraph for each subject matter, and in such a format should show:

6. All main motions ... or motions to bring a main question again before the assembly ... except any that were withdrawn... giving:
 - a) The wording in which each motion was adopted or otherwise disposed of (with the facts as to how the motion may have been debated or amended before disposition being mentioned only parenthetically)
 - b) The disposition of the motion, including... if it was temporarily disposed of ... any primary and secondary motions that were then pending,
 - c) Usually, in the case of all important motions, the name of the mover and...
7. All points of order and appeals, whether sustained or lost, together with the reasons given by the chair for his/her ruling.

The last paragraph should state:

8. The hour of adjournment.

Additional rules and practices relating to the content of the minutes are the following:

--- The name of the person seconding a motion should not be entered in the minutes unless ordered by the assembly.

--- When a count has been ordered or the vote is by ballot, the number of votes on each side should be entered; and when the voting is by roll call, the names of those voting on each side and those answering "Present" should be entered. If members fail to respond on a roll call vote, enough of their names should be recorded as present to reflect that a quorum was present at the time of the vote.

--- The proceedings of a committee of the whole, or a quasi committee of the whole, should not be entered in the Minutes, but the fact that the assembly went into committee of the whole (or into quasi committee) and the committee report should be recorded.

--- When a question is considered informally, the same information should be recorded as under the regular rules, since the only informality in the proceedings is in the debate.

--- When a committee report is of great importance or should be recorded to show the legislative history of a measure, the assembly can order it "to be entered in the Minutes," in which case the secretary copies it in full in the Minutes.

--- The name and subject of a guest speaker can be given, but no effort should be made to summarize his/her remarks.

THE SIGNATURE: (Paragraph modified for Book of Order requirements.)

Minutes of session meetings and congregational meetings should be signed by the clerk/secretary and can also be signed, if the assembly wishes, by the moderator but signature of the moderator is not required. The words respectfully submitted, although occasionally used, represent an older practice that is not essential in signing the Minutes.

When the Minutes are approved, the word APPROVED, with the secretary's initials and the date, should be written below them.

J. A PAPER ON THE ROLE OF THE CLERK OF SESSION

1. The Book of Order makes the following provisions:

- G-3.0104 - The clerk shall record the transactions of the governing body, keep its rolls of membership and attendance, preserve its records carefully, and furnish extracts from them when required by another governing body of the church. Such extracts, verified by the clerk, shall be evidence in any governing body of the church.

- G-3.0104 - The clerk of session shall be an elder elected by the session for such term as it may determine. Names of the Clerks of Session are to be reported to the Presbyterian Office as they change throughout the calendar year.

NOTE: It is in order for any elder, whether or not an active member of the session, to serve as clerk of session as long as the elder is elected by the session for a definite term and, of course, could be re-elected. If the clerk of session is not an active member of the session, then he/she cannot vote and should have voice only in matters related to the function of the clerk unless voice is given to the clerk by action of the session.

- G-1.0505 – The Clerk of Session serves as secretary at congregational meetings.

2. The clerk of session should work with the moderator of the session, which is the pastor or a minister appointed by the Presbytery for that purpose. It is very important for the clerk of session to work very closely with the moderator in developing agendas for the meetings and for them to keep each other informed concerning issues that will be coming before the session.

3. It is recommended that the clerk of session keep a list of the important items that should be coming before the session during the year to be sure they are included at the proper time on the agenda. It is helpful to have these in chronological order and should include such items as: election of officers, authorization of communion services during the year, submission of minutes of the Board of Deacons, and review of other groups in the church, etc.

4. The clerk will also receive important correspondence and reports during the year, such as the information for presbytery meetings, annual statistical reports, annual review of compensation for pastors, etc. A system for getting these packets to the right people as quickly as possible is important.

5. When the church is without a pastor, the clerk becomes the chief point of communication from the Presbytery and the larger church. The clerk must be careful that all correspondence and materials reach the persons who are to receive them including the session as a whole.

6. It is important that the minutes and other records be kept in a permanent binding so that valuable records will not be lost.

7. THE ACTIVE CHURCH MEMBERSHIP ROLL is an important responsibility for the clerk of session. The clerk is to see that all new members are properly entered including the full name of the member. When married women join, it is important that their maiden name be used as at least one of their middle names. The membership roll is to be reviewed annually. The session may remove members from the roll in accordance with G-3.0204a, Book of Order.

8. The BAPTIZED MEMBERS ROLL is important to keep and should include careful detail as to names, etc.; and is to include not only those baptized in the congregation, but the baptized children of new members that join. When a person on the Baptized Members Roll is received by Profession of Faith, then they are transferred to the Active Members Roll.

9. AFFILIATE MEMBERS ROLL contains names of those who are a member of another congregation, who has temporarily moved from congregation where the membership is situated, has presented a certificate of good standing and has been received by the session. An affiliate member has all the rights of a member except vote or be elected to ordered ministry or other office in the congregation.

10. OTHER PARTICIPANTS are persons who are not members of, or have ceased active participation in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) but are welcomed and may participated in the life and worship of the church and receive pastoral care.

11. INACTIVE ROLL is no longer required to be maintained but may be used as determined by the Session. See Book of Order, G-3.0204a for removing members.

12. REGISTERS of baptisms authorized by the session, of ruling elders and deacons, of installed pastors with dates of service, and such other registers as the session may deem necessary, which should include marriages performed by the ministers, will be maintained.

13. ANNUAL STATISTICAL REPORTS are required by both the Presbytery and the General Assembly. Book of Order, G-3.0202f states that one of the responsibilities of the Session is “to send to the presbytery and General Assembly requested statistics and other information according to the requirements of those bodies, as well as voluntary financial contributions.” As Clerk of Session you should help shepherd the process of statistics gathering and ensure that these reports are provided to Presbytery in a timely fashion, normally due in mid-February. Once the established date passes, churches can no longer input on-line and must submit reports to the Presbytery Stated Clerk to be entered.

It is important to realize that the information contained in the Annual Statistical Reports to the General Assembly must be reviewed and verified by Presbytery Staff for transmittal to the Office of the General Assembly. They, in turn, must then review reports received from the whole Church and have them published April-May timeframe. This means that the General Assembly Office imposes a very early deadline on the presbyteries, usually early-March.

14. The Presbytery of Eastern Virginia sends out/e-mails a packet each November/December, containing:

- a. The instructions for reporting statistical information – all churches will submit their reports on-line; if the church lacks on-line capability, arrangements can be made with the Stated Clerk.,

- b. Annual Report to Presbytery Form for listing Elders & Deacons and other key persons to the Presbytery, and
- c. Annual Terms of Call Forms, as applicable, for installed pastors.

15. Annual Terms of Call. Each church with an installed pastor/associate pastor/designated pastor will submit an Annual Terms of Call Form reflecting any changes. The forms are sent to Clerks of Session in November and are due to be returned as soon as possible after the Annual Meeting or by the end of February. Housing allowance amounts for the coming year are to be approved by the session prior to December 31 to conform to Internal Revenue Service regulations. Any changes in terms of call must also be reported to the Board of Pensions for credit in pension benefits.
