General Retreat Information

You Only Live Once: Live to Love

Our time on this earth is finite. Instead of living into God's call for us, we get distracted by the trivial things of this world. We are consumed with our image. We are fixated on our success. We forget our Maker's plan for us. You are God's beloved creation. You are created in the divine image of God. God's love radiates in and around you. This retreat will focus on the practical ways that youth can love themselves, love their neighbors, and live to love God. Join us!

Presbytery of Eastern Virginia Youth Retreat Information Sheet

We are so excited that your church has chosen to participate in the 2019 Fall Retreat. Our vision for the retreat is that, with God's help, we will help youth in our Presbytery to establish meaningful relationships with each other. By providing worship, small groups, fellowship events, and hands on learning opportunities, we hope to challenge and encourage middle and high school youth in their faith life. You can expect the retreat to provide inspirational leaders, experiences, opportunities, and amazing surroundings. You are also an important part of this event, because without you-this would not be possible!

Adult Leader Covenant

You, and all the other adult leaders, play a very important role in the ministry of this retreat. While you will receive more details on the first day of the retreat, here are some highlights of how we will be looking to you to insure the success of the program:

By participating in all retreat activities with the youth and attending everything

By accepting the responsibility as a role model for all youth participants

By affirming and helping to enforce the retreat covenant

By encouraging and supporting the Small Group Leaders and retreat Leadership in their efforts to minister to you and the youth.

By providing leadership and accountability for your own group during all events of the retreat-honoring the retreat curfew, supervising youth during free time, and ensuring that all are attentive during scheduled program activities

By not leaving site unless there is an emergency. If you must leave site, please contact one of the Leadership Team Members

Anytime that you have a question, a need, an affirmation, or concern about any element of the retreat, please share this with a member of the Leadership Team or any member of the Planning Team. Thank you for helping to make this event an important stop along our connected journeys of faith!
