NOVEMBER
8-10

The background features three large, dark teal letters: a 'Y' on the left, an 'R' in the middle, and an 'L' on the right. Overlaid on these letters is the text 'PEVA Fall youth Retreat' in a white, brushstroke-style font. The 'Y' contains 'PEVA', the 'R' contains 'Fall', and the 'L' contains 'youth' and 'Retreat'.

MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH

You Only Live Once: Live to Love

Our time on this earth is finite. Instead of living into God's call for us, we get distracted by the trivial things of this world. We are consumed with our image. We are fixated on our success. We forget our Maker's plan for us.

You are God's beloved creation. You are created in the divine image of God. God's love radiates in and around you. This retreat will focus on the practical ways that youth can love themselves, love their neighbors, and live to love God.

Join us this fall!

Keynoter: Rev. Dr. Joy Denise Carrington

Dr. Carrington is a graduate of Virginia Union University, Regent University and The Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University. Rev. Carrington began her preaching ministry at the age of 16 and is celebrating her 24th year in service to others. She is currently the Director of the Wesley Westminster Foundation at NSU. Formerly, Joy has been a missionary to India and Cambodia.

Dr. Joy loves working with people to realize their full potential. She is the proud guardian of twin teenage girls and her favorite cat, Sylvia. Joy enjoys basketball, golf, softball and ice cream.
