CAROL MILLER

Encouraging, inspiring, and teaching people through the love of Jesus is the passion of Carol Sargent Miller. Filling her teachings with lively and entertaining illustrations, Carol challenges her listeners to learn, understand and implement life-changing attitudes and actions. Be it in a church, retreat, or one-on-one, for over 20 years, Carol has delivered foundational principles essential for a dynamic, abundant life in Christ. Her personal trials and triumphs are testimony that every pain, pressure, and problem can be overcome by the love, goodness and grace of the Lord Jesus.

Married for nearly 50 years, Carol and Gordon raised three children, and they are "Grammie" and "Grandad" to nine. Though she is an ordained minister, pastoral counselor, bible study teacher, and speaker, her greatest joy is to be Jesus' helper.

PAULA BASS

With over 20 years of ministry, Paula is well equipped to assist others in finding their way in a challenging world. Internationally, with church and business groups, she has shared her teachings on personalities, leadership and overcoming the hurts of the past. "Paula Pellets" as her insights have been called by many, have been offered in large and small groups. Both women and couples groups have enjoyed her wit and wisdom. Whether at a women's retreat, training session or workshop, Paula brings thought-provoking ideas to her messages.

Paula shares her life with her husband, Preston; her two sons and three grandchildren round out her family. Anyone who knows Paula, however, knows that most everyone she meets become family.

COME TO THE TABLE...

We've tried the 'shopping 'til dropping, working 'til weary, and partying 'til pooped' lifestyle—and we're left empty and unsatisfied. More than anything else, we are hungry for a deeper relationship with the Lord Jesus. The craving we have can only be satisfied when we Come to the Table—His wonderful table of grace. Savoring His presence and soaking in His Spirit fill us to overflowing – in Him! Come, trusting in the Savior, guided by His Spirit and welcomed by the King —

Come to the Table of Grace

COMFORTING QUILTS...

The project begins with the most beautiful fabric; perfect for the quilt I have in mind. I have the right pattern, clear directions, and proper tools ready. In my mind, I see a quilt of beauty; I know this will be a blessing. I progress, following the directions and using the tools, but the project just isn't looking as I want it to. How can this happen? I'm following what the words say, but it looks ragged and torn up. Often, life is much like this project. God creates us perfectly for His purpose. Then, life happens and cuts us into ragged pieces. BUT, God is faithful. He will bind up our rough edges, smooth out our bumps, and border us with His love.
