

The Session
Called Meeting, 12:15 p.m.
Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian Church

Brevard, NC
Church Lounge
January 6, 2008

The Session met at the call of the minister for the purpose of examining the people who have responded to God's call to be officers of the church. The Reverend Keith Thompson presided as Moderator.

Session members present: Jim Ansley, Ginny Bradford, Judy Caldwell, Joyce Carney, Sara Champion, Don Gentle, John Rowe, and Tom Taylor.

Others present: Newly elected officers: Larry Goodwin, Phillip Jerome, Rod Nunnelee, Carolyn Turner, and Sue Yowell; and alternates Steve Hogenboom, and Sara Winston. Alternate Joyce Weaver was absent. Reverend Keith Thompson was also present.

The Clerk indicated that a quorum was present.

Each newly elected officer shared his faith journey with the Session, and Session members were given the opportunity to question and welcome the new officers. The installation/ordination service for these new officers will be Sunday, January 13 at the 11:00 a.m. service.

Steve Hogenboom asked if the alternates would be installed/ordained on January 13th or would they wait until a vacancy occurred on the Session. It was decided to let each alternate officer decide for himself if he wanted to be included in the service now or wait until he assumed office as an active elder.

Pastor Keith Thompson closed the meeting with prayer.
