

UNCC Percussion Ensemble

Sunday, April 17, 2016
3PM

The UNCC Percussion Ensemble consists of top music students at the University of North Carolina, Charlotte, who perform at a high professional level. The group will introduce us to marimbas, vibraphones, xylophones, and all manner of drums, as well as Latin and other ethnic percussion instruments. The remarkable range of sounds, beats, and rhythms and the extraordinary dexterity of the musicians will amaze and astound you!

The members of the Episcopal Church of Saint Peter by-the-Lake are happy to announce the sixth season of the Alexander Community Concert Series, which is dedicated to presenting a variety of musical talents to our entire community in an intimate and welcoming environment.

The Alexander Community Concert Series is named for Richard & Clara Alexander, who have been active members of St. Peter by-the-Lake for many years. Both served for decades as professional educators in New York and North Carolina before retiring. One of their great passions in life has always been involvement in and support for the arts and culture in the Charlotte area. Naming this concert series after them honors that life-long commitment to art, music, and civility in our public discourse.

Synergy Violins

Sunday, September 20, 2015

3PM

SYNERGY: the creation of a whole that is greater than the sum of its parts. By fusing classical instruments with contemporary music, Synergy Violins pushes musical boundaries and captivates audiences with high-energy performances and innovative arrangements. Originally an identical twin duo, Stephen and Jeff Neil on electric violin and viola have added Kristen Miller on electric violin and Sarah Clanton on electric cello. They have performed on NBC's "Today" show, headlined on major cruise lines, and performed for nationally recognized cultural and professional sporting events. Synergy Violins is sure to stimulate your senses.

Musically Yours

Sunday, November 15, 2015

3PM

Musically Yours is an exceptional trio of accomplished musicians specializing in both traditional and popular music. Randall Sprinkle plays the beautiful and unique harp guitar, accompanied by his wife Jayne on harp. Diane Cox joins the pair and provides resonant melodies on her cello. The three instruments produce a distinctive and particularly beautiful sound that will enchant you from the very first note. Winner of the Couples' Choice Award in 2014 and 2015, this group's special arrangements will be a treat for your ears.

The Ziad Jazz Quartet

Sunday, February 28, 2016

3PM

Back for a return engagement, the popular Ziad Jazz Quartet will present a program of Gypsy Jazz and other jazz genres. Gypsy Jazz is said to have been originated by Django Reinhardt in Paris in the 1930s. With Ziad Rabie on saxophone, Rick Dior on drums, Ron Brendle on bass, and Noel Freidline on piano, the group will also feature Andy Page on guitar and Matt Williams on violin. Since 2010, the quartet has been playing monthly at the hugely popular "Jazz at the Bechtler" series, held in the museum lobby. You'll be wowed by the spontaneity, electricity, and fabulous vibe of this top-notch group.
