Comments from Former Participants:

- Coaching has been revolutionary for me to say the least. Because of my coach's patience and giftedness in listening as well as his straightforwardness, he was able to help me learn very valuable lessons and skills as well as teach me by his openness and honesty.
- This process has allowed me to dream again. The dream that God designed for me and placed in my life is alive and vibrant again.
- PCN has played an amazing part of God's transformation in my life and ministry. It is very true that being in a coaching relationship gives you the discipline to take your dreams and visions farther faster. Each week I can identify my riverbanks and benchmarks for effective Kingdom work.
- Coaching has taken my personal mentoring ministry to a new level. Instead of scratching my head on how to help a fellow pastor, coaching allows me to help a pastor to discover the answer for himself. Coaching has radically changed my relationship with my grown kids.
