Dear Parishioners and Friends of Christ Church,

Our seventh season of Music at Christ Church Andover opens on All Saints' Sunday with a performance of Johannes Brahms' Requiem by the combined Parish Choirs of Christ Church, Andover and Christ Church, Hamilton & Wenham. Soloists will be Anney Barrett, soprano, and Michael Barrett, baritone, with the original four-hands piano accompaniment composed by Brahms. Two weeks later we welcome back the Boston-based Renaissance choir, Convivium Musicum, conducted by Michael Barrett. In December, the New England Classical Singers presents their Holiday Concert under the direction of David Hodgkins, and A Service of Lessons and Carols will be sung by the Christ Church Parish Choir and Schola featuring Benjamin Britten's A Ceremony of Carols.

The new year brings a multitude of special recitals, concerts and services. James Dargan, from New York City, performs a recital of spirituals in January, the Raven Consort, accompanied by string quintet and piano, performs music of Nicholas White in February, and our Parish Choir sings Choral Evensong with a prelude organ recital by Abbey Siegfried in March. The New England Classical Singers and Andover Choral Society present their spring concerts at Christ Church in March and May, respectively, and the season closes with our children's choirs singing Choral Evensong for the Eleventh Annual Treble Choirs Festival.

Please JOIN US for another exciting season of music at Christ Church!
