

January's Featured Missionary

- 1 Billion people around the world don't have access to God's Word
- 89 Million people in the United States don't read their Bible
- 6,000 languages have yet to receive a full Bible translation
- 1 in 7 people have experienced trauma that prevents them from encountering God in the Bible

The American Bible Society works to make the Bible available and alive for people in the most difficult circumstances by:

- Translating the Bible where no translation exists
- Distributing the Bible to people who long for their first copy
- Restoring broken lives through God's Word
- Equipping local leaders to share the transforming power of God's Word
- Advocating for the Bible to play a role in culture

In the next 10 years, the American Bible Society will work with partners to translate 100 Percent of languages around the world. and equip 100 million people in the U.S. to actively engage with the Bible.
