Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. Matthew 16: 24

Lenten Formation Series

The Cathedral is a place of spiritual inquiry and exploration. As Jesus experienced a time of heightened spiritual awareness and cleansing during his forty day retreat into the desert, we set apart the forty days during the season of Lent as a time for self-examination and repentance as we prepare for Easter.

First Sunday in Lent – March 5th

The Great Litany: Corporate Prayer in National Crisis

Why do we sing the Great Litany on the first Sunday of Lent? Please join the Dean for a discussion of the history and usage of this first English rite created for the Anglican Church and an exploration of the litany as a prayer form. What does it mean to lift up the prayers for the people?

Saturday, March 11

Lenten Retreat

Journey into the Desert:

A Lenten Seasoning

Lent invites us to follow Jesus into the desert; an experience of vulnerability and surrender into the fullness and truth of our lives. Enriching our Lenten season, this retreat will combine prayer, reflecting on readings, and sharing in small groups. Ruth Cunningham of Anonymous 4 will provide vocal music that will be accompanied by Tibetan singing bowls. Presenters are Joanne Brewer Conway, Ed.D.; Harriet Kollin, M.Div.,MSN; Phyllis Strock, MA; and Ruth Cunningham.

Second Sunday in Lent – March 12th Life and Death Transformed

Atul Gawande's bestselling book Being Mortal will provide a reference for this two-part series. We all face the inevitable process of aging and death. As people of faith, we will explore the meaning of spiritual well-being, and quality of life in the light of the resurrection and treatment options provided by advances in modern medicine. How do we talk about chronic illness and death? How do we incorporate our death into our view of a life well lived? Do we understand ourselves as mortal beings? How can we support one another in life's great journey to an inevitable outcome? On Sunday, March 12th, following the 10 am service of the Holy Eucharist, we will view together the PBS Frontline program Being Mortal, in which Dr. Gawande and several of his patients are interviewed. The link to the PBS Frontline presentation is <http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/frontline/film/being-mortal/>

Third Sunday in Lent – March 19th Life and Death Transformed

On Sunday March 19th, following the 10 am service of the Holy Eucharist, we will participate in a panel discussion with Christina Clay, M.D.; Meggie Kobb, M.Div., Chaplain at the Hospital of University of Pennsylvania; Rodger McKinney, Owner/Supervisor of Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home; and Kimberly Rumaker, MSW. Please join us for the important and sometimes difficult conversations in which the realities of our physical lives intersect with the hope of our Christian belief.

The Episcopal Way

Church's Teachings
for a Changing
World
VOLUME I

Fourth Sunday in Lent – March 26th

The Episcopal Way (Part I) - A class for Newcomers, Inquirers, and those preparing for baptism, confirmation, and reception.

Following the service of the Holy Eucharist at 10 am and a light lunch, the clergy staff will lead a class for all newcomers, inquirers, and those preparing for baptism, confirmation, and reception. We will use Eric Law and Stephanie Spellers Book The Episcopal Way: Church's Teaching for a Changing World as a guide to learn more about the Episcopal Church.

The Cathedral welcomes people from a wide variety of religious backgrounds, including those who have never participated in any religious activity. The diversity of our congregation is a stimulating part of life here at the Cathedral, but naturally there are questions from potential—and current—members and visitors about the actual beliefs and practices of the Episcopal Church, in particular.

The class offers a forum for the exploration of these questions, whether in preparation for membership, or for simply deepening an understanding of one's own faith. Join us for these spirited sessions as we explore who we are, where we come from, and where we are going in the Episcopal Church. For more information, please call 215.386.0234, ext. 13 or visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org

Fifth Sunday in Lent – April 2nd

The Episcopal Way (Part II) - A class for Newcomers, Inquirers, and those preparing for baptism, confirmation, and reception

Lenten Worship at the Cathedral

We extend to you the hospitality of Jesus. This is a house of prayer for all people. During this holy season of Lent, our Cathedral is committed to offering a rich and diverse schedule of worship that embraces our Anglican heritage while welcoming newcomers and seekers.

The Right Reverend Daniel G. P. Gutiérrez – Presider & Preacher

Choral Anthem: “Christus est stella” – Will Todd

The service begins in darkness with the kindling of new fire and the lighting and procession of the Paschal Candle. Chanting of Psalms and readings from scripture in candlelight recall God’s acts in history beginning at the creation. Rites of Christian Initiation follows, when members of the Cathedral congregation and from around the Diocese of Pennsylvania are baptized, confirmed, received from another communion and reaffirming their baptismal vows. Then, with sudden bursts of light, shouts of “Alleluia,” bells, hymns and anthems, the Resurrection is proclaimed and the first Eucharist of Easter is celebrated.

Easter Sunday – April 16th

10 am – Festival Eucharist

The Very Reverend Judith A. Sullivan – Presider & Preacher

Choral Anthems: “Sing, my tongue” – Richard Shephard

“Holy is the true light” – William H. Harris

Visual Art at the Cathedral

The Visual Arts Program at the Cathedral is one of the most important ways we reach out to a wide variety of constituencies, exhibiting the work of local artists as well as artists from around the country and around the world.

Stations of the Cross

Gerard DiFalco, Artist

Exhibition Dates:

March 1 – April 14

Viewing Times: Monday – Friday

11 am – 1 pm

Other times by appointment.

The Stations of the Cross serve as a meditational tool used in Episcopalian, Anglican and Roman Catholic churches during Lent to reflect upon Christ's suffering on Good Friday; Traditionally, fourteen scenes (or Stations) that lead up to Christ's entombment are included in these visual works.

The Stations are expressed in various artistic genres, including sculpture, wall-relief, painting, printmaking, weaving, and photo/digital process. Throughout history, artists have used a variety of media such as: plaster; marble; wood; clay; oil/acrylic on canvas; etchings on paper; and; stained glass.

This exhibit includes multi-media assemblages on canvas – executed in 2007 – and represents the artist's first venture into creating a Stations of the Cross. This series has been exhibited at The Da Vinci Art Gallery in central Philadelphia and at The Holy Family University Art Gallery in Northeast Philadelphia.

Outreach Ministries

Outreach at Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral is inspired by these words from Matthew's Gospel: For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me.

(Matthew 25:35)

In the tradition of the earliest Cathedrals, we are a place of unconditional hospitality and welcome to all who walk through our open doors. We minister to the hungry who seek physical sustenance through the Cathedral's weekly Food Pantry, monthly Community Luncheons and our "Take Away Meal" ministry. The Cathedral also collaborates with the "Our Closet" a non-profit agency providing clothing and accessories to men, women and children. Additional outreach projects take place throughout the year in collaboration with Episcopal Community Services, Philabundance and Ralston House. If you are interested in volunteering, for any of these ministries, please contact the Cathedral Office at (215) 386-0234, ext. 13.

Food Pantry Schedule in the Cathedral

Every Monday the doors open at 10 a.m.

The pantry remains open until we have served 150 households.

Monthly Community Luncheons

Last Thursday of each month at 12 Noon in the Cathedral.

"Our Closet" Clothes Ministry

3rd Wednesday of each month in the Cathedral
from 10 am – 12 Noon.

At Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral, we gather in the name of Jesus Christ to give thanks and praise to God and to serve the community around us. We are a unique urban center whose doors are open to feed the hungry, to pray, to be inspired by the arts, and to learn as we come closer to God's creative, healing spirit.
