

Welcome to New Members

We welcome new members, Curtis and Sharon Beal and Terry and Mary Key, who joined on Sunday, April 22.

Curtis and Sharon Beal were members of Blair Road United Methodist Church in Mint Hill for 35 years. They moved to Burlington in March of 2017 from Mint Hill, N. C. (Charlotte suburb) to be nearer their two daughters, son-in-laws and four grandchildren. One lives in High Point and the other in Raleigh. What better place to be than Burlington.

Curtis grew up in Lincolnton, N. C. and Sharon grew up in Denton, N. C.

Curtis retired from The Capital Management Group of First Union/Wachovia Bank and Trust. Sharon retired from Rural Development, USDA. Their hobbies are watching grandchildren play school and league soccer, and compete in swimming. They also enjoy bird watching, boating, and traveling on day trips.

Marty and Mary Key and their 3 children Hayden, Lauren, and Caroline live in Liberty. Marty is a consultant for RJG Inc. in Gibsonville and enjoys sports, hunting, fishing, gardening, and the outdoors. Mary is a Coordinator of Operations, Marketing, and STEM outreach with Fordham Plastics. Mary is also the founder of Key Up Education; a nationwide STEM initiative for students. Their son, Hayden, is a sophomore at UNC Charlotte, pursuing a degree in Computer Science who enjoys all things technology. Lauren is a high school junior attending classes at Alamance Community College and is a huge Chicago Cubs fan. Caroline is a sixth grader at Southern Middle School who enjoys dance and spending time with her cousins.
